SUMMARY

I am a dedicated 18 year old on the verge of becoming a college student, with the intention of becoming a Marine biologist after a successful college education.

Hopefully apply my knowledge too helping this planet, this is my main goal and almost only goal in life.

EXPERIENCE

Larry the rep-Associative assistant

2012 Jan 1st- 2014 March 1st

My father Larry Bacon has a business where he is a sales representative representing many companies, my job in all of this was too keep everything organized including receipts, files, planning, dates, appointments and interviews with new companies.

Accomplishments

-Earned respect from every single company my father has represented, in which they would prioritize me over any other assistant.

Exotic Aquatics- In Store employee/ Cashier

2012 Feb 1st- 2013 June- 26th

In this job my main priority was to maintain the live creatures that we have and make sure they are content, help customers, and

EDUCATION

centaurus High School

Grade level- Senior

SKILLS

It has been expressed to me many times that I am a very persistent person when it comes to the things I love most, that includes excelling in skateboarding, interest in swimming capabilities and diving and my graffiti art which I feel says a lot about me and my skills.
