

Jorge Villela

Extrusion Machine Operator - Clariant Corp

Elgin, IL

gvillela7216@gmail.com - (224) 465-1926

WORK EXPERIENCE

Extrusion Machine Operator

Clariant Corp - West Chicago, IL - October 2012 to Present

Operate an extrusion machine that converts powder into plastic, and also package the product for shipping to the company's clients. Responsible for quality control, machine troubleshooting/maintenance, and ensuring that all paperwork completed properly.

Construction Labor Worker

Koras Construction Company - Sun Valley, CA - May 2009 to September 2011

Entry level help on construction site; demolition and clean up. Also worked with power tools, chainsaws, table saws, tile saw, and bobcat equipment. Some of the accomplishments from this job were learning how to work in the construction environment and also being safe around it.

EDUCATION

Vocational in Specialist Certificate

Basic Vocational

High school diploma

Cecyten High School

June 2012

Elgin Community College

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Strong background with extrusion machine operation.
- Basic knowledge of the installation/soldering, and brazing of copper piping.
- Experience with a multi-meter, manifold gauges for proper use in HVAC maintenance.
- General understanding of air conditioning, and electrical control systems for HVAC equipment.
- Knowledgeable in area of blueprint reading, including floor plans, foundation, elevations, details and sections, plot plan, door, window, and general specifications. Residential and light commercial.
- Basic sheet metal assembly experience; such as pipes, tubes, heating and air conditioning ducts.
- Strong ability with multi-tasking skills and quick learner.
- Speak and write both English and Spanish.
- Experience with customer service.