

Jaime Turrey

Material Handler - Navistar

El Paso, TX

jaime.turrey03@gmail.com - 915-873-9862

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

WORK EXPERIENCE

Material Handler

Navistar - November 2014 to Present

Served as the material handler for U.S. Department of the Army Mine Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP) tactical vehicles under the Army Material Command (AMC). Managed the receiving, storage, and inventory of Government Furnished Equipment (GFE) of MRAP tactical vehicles in a reset program warehouse at Fort Bliss, TX.

- Responsible for the movement of kits, hardware and consumables to work stations as well as removal of kit packaging
- Responsible for movement of materials as identified by Field Service Representatives and mechanics in support of vehicle builds
- Work closely with inventory and supply chain personnel
- Stock and Expert at MRAP model series: MaxxPro Base, MaxxPro Plus
- Operated electric forklifts, ¼ ton forklifts, SkyTrak forklifts, pallet jacks, and banding/strapping equipment

Material Handler

Safety Kleen - November 2013 to November 2014

Responsible for the shipping, receiving, organizing, sorting and categorizing of Hazardous Materials and Hazardous Waste. Ensure the safety standards of Hazardous materials are met according to policy and regulations. Manage the efficiency of warehouse inventory while conducting scheduled cyclic inventories of hazardous materials.

- Responsible for receiving, storage, inventory and distribution of hazardous materials and hazardous waste
- Retrieve materials per requisition and order ensuring proper inventory quantity
- Performed cyclic inventory of hazardous materials and ensuring proper cataloging
- Material handling, warehouse shipping and receiving activities; palletizing techniques
- Utilize Material Handling Equipment (MHE) such as sit-down forklifts and electric drills

Material Handler

Conn's Distribution Center - March 2011 to November 2013

Served as a material handler and forklift operator in a distribution storage facility ensuring stored merchandise were organized and properly located for quick and convenient retrieval. Received proper inventory counts during receiving and processing of stock merchandise.

- Received and signed for incoming freight merchandise verifying proper inventory labeled on the bill of lading
- Processed received merchandise validating inventory processed through the Oracle system
- Loaded, unloaded and moved merchandise from freight truck to loading dock and storage location
- Operated electric forklifts, ¼ ton forklifts, pallet jacks, dollies, banding equipment, and strapping material
- Ensured the organization and cleanliness of merchandise in processing and stock inventory areas

Material Handler

Cardinal Healthcare Distribution Center - November 2008 to March 2011

Operated and maintained effective Medical warehouse and distribution center enhancing the receiving, shipping and storage practices that promoted efficient flow of storage, identification and retrieval of materials while ensuring the integrity of inventory quality

- Outlined orders for process and delivery
- Managed proper inventory availability for order requisitions
- Carried out bar code scanning and inventory cycle counts
- Performed cyclic inventory in teams and served as inventory team leader
- Ensure the proper flow of receiving, processing and storing of material

Material Handler

Toro Company - January 2008 to November 2008

Executed warehouse duties in a distribution center to include locating, processing and delivering materials from receiving dock to proper inventory location ensuring stock integrity of products.

- Received product shipments from receiving/shipping dock utilizing electric forklift and electric pallet jacks
- Conduct palletizing and sort according to inventory location
- Distributed palletized products to shipping dock distribution
- Strategize inventory shelves according to proper product, quantity, and shelf-life management procedures
- Performed Quarterly and Annual wall-to-wall scheduled inventories utilizing hand held bar code scanners

EDUCATION

High School Diploma

Irvin High School - El Paso, TX

2008