

Professional Summary

I'm a hard working person, devoted and passionate individual with strong organizational skills and the ability to multitask, Strength include time management, self-motivation, and the ability to be both a leader and a team player with excellent interpersonal skills. I always make sure I'm focused on what i do and work with 100% quality, and i always make sure i meet the deadline of my sterilization schedule.

Skills

Bend needles and flatten them to the bending machine.

Used

centrifuge machine to wash collagen shields and use a lot of multiplication, subtraction, division and addition prior to washing collagen shields.

Rotovap collagen cake to remove excess chemicals and then mix it, filter it n put it into 30cc tubes and put it into water bath till the final process will be made.

Cut

collagen plugs and check it under the microscope to make sure they have the right measurement of 2mm. Apply quality control procedures of optical supplies using calipers and microscope.

Assembled surgery knife using a special epoxy n put it into the oven for four hrs.

work experience

team leader / technician / production associate / quality control

07/1994 to 11/2014

oasis medical company – 520 south Vermont Ave Glendora CA 91741

Team leader= instructed and supervised employees as to their duties. Set and achieve personal goals while supporting the goals of the team.

Technician= create collagen shields by soaking it to sodium hydroxide and neutralize it with acetic acid and wash it with ethanol alcohol and distilled water with citric acid.

Production Associate=work in accordance of strict quality assurance specifications, such as bending, flattening, sealing, packaging of optical supplies and apply quality control procedures of optical supplies using a microscope.

Quality Control=check product prior to consumer usage.

quality control

01/1994 to 04/1994

aerosol company – City of industry valley Blvd. CA

Checked product prior to consumer usage.

Pull some empty hair spray bottle put them in the machine to make sure they contain the right weight.

lead lady / Assembler / fill checker

06/1990 to 10/1993

miles cutter biological company – industrial park covina california

Instructed and supervised employees as to their duties, provided assistance to other when needed.

Assembled blood bags by attaching the tubing.

Pull some empty blood bags weigh it and put it into the machine to be filled with some solutions and weight again subtract and multiply to insure the right weight of the blood bags is correct.

Education

High School Diploma:

1987

Tarlac national high school - Tarlac city Philippines