PROFILE

Alysha, I'm 33 years old. I have no kids but a huge family - I am bilingual .

I have experience in costumer service, a real people person as well as behind the scenes in a wear house. I can work in groups great team player, as well as can handle things on my own. I'm super excited to see what opportunity's open up for me what more I can learn and excel in.

Dimond Shamrock

OCT. 2009 – JUNE 2009

I started as a cashier, doing the basics customer service, stocking, front facing, prep for the next shift food handling skills as time went on I also did inventory, shipment intake by the time I left I was open/closing the store, training others proven problem solver, doing bank drops and safe and Brink change exchange.

Hamilton linen

SEP.2009 -FEB. 2010

I worked on assembly line doing catching, folding, boxing and prepping for shipment. I improved my reading writing skills following instruction, multitasking skills self-management skills.

Publication Printers

JULY 2014 -DEC 2017

I started as a feeder for a machine which included mailing prep for mailing the strapping machine the boxing machine assembly by hand then moved up to being a catcher with that I leaned how to prep for a job, inventory skill, calm under pressure I learned the hand pallet jack as well as the driving pallet jack. I was also taught the folder, the cutter, how to catch on a binder all of this came with dedication and being able to work alone as well as a team player with all this I was able to became an operator which I loved.
