I'm bilingual(spanish)

I'm currently a press operator in Golden CO.

(Looking for 1st shift options for family reasons-

I currently work 2pm to 10pm anything with and end time around 6pm or earlier would be appreciated.)

I've worked auto oil and tire shop for 2+ years

Started as service writer then promoted to TLE Tech. I worked for Wal-Mart for going on 3 years.

I've worked almost every position they had to offer I've gained more experience from paint mixing, electronics/sales, cashiering, overnight stocker, apparel, issuing hunting/fishing license, deli associate, phone operator and overhead pages, and lastly TLE/ Auto Care Technician.

I did all that besides management, I was offered twice by my supervisors, but didn't really go for it.

I have a valid Support badge and mmj experience.

I am a quick learner, Customer service has always been a top priority for me.

I left the auto industry to try out the mmj industry looking for better pay options. The experience I had was nice. I enjoy manufacturing but I need a day shift to accommodate some family medical/school needs.

I'm looking for competitive pay, current salary 19/hr. I do work overtime when I and OT are available.

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

Press Operator

Kong LLC - Golden, CO

February 2020 to Present

Press operator.

Was offered overnight lead position(but denied due to my status as a temp hire) when I was hired on the position had already been filled.

But soon after I was promoted to new hire trainer with successful trainees hired on.- But I no longer hold this position.

I do speak Spanish, I do my best with others who may have a language barrier.

Understanding the importance of keeping press molds clean and only using proper equipment to avoid damaging mold.

Working with natural rubber and knowing how to identify product defects by hand while keeping up with press cycles.

Using proper PPE such as long sleeves and gloves to avoid burns/ accidents.(safety first)

Notify leads/ supervisor of any issues.

Clarifying doubts with the book given or with a superior.

Helping others when given the opportunity.

With trash round up, pallet sweeps, and helping others trouble shoot their press issues.

Will work overtime if the opportunity and myself are available.
