

Andrew Schulz

Clifton Park, NY 12065

andrewschulz52_xx8@indeedemail.com

(734) 325-0016

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

Material Control/Receiving

Abbott Nutrition - Sturgis, MI

2019 to Present

- Receive incoming material and unload trucks.
- Coordinate supplies with production departments.
- Analyze production schedule and stage materials.
- Answer calls for supplies from liquid and powder processing.
- Switch yard trailers and move material to and from offsite warehouse.
- Operate Production System Line Palletizer.
- Pull Supply Orders to transfer to other plants including hazmat.

Receiving/Inventory Control Manager

Family Dollar Distribution Center - Ashley, IN

2018 to 2019

- Manage the receiving and Inventory Control sections on 3rd shift.
- Selecting which shipments get unloaded over the night by oldest loads, out of stock opportunities, and priorities.
- Count and verify any overage/shortage on shipments.
- Request BOL or packing slips to verify discrepancies.
- Coordinate with other departments on emergent needs and rush to picks.
- Staff planning and training.
- Approve inventory adjustments and discrepancies.

Chief Central Supply

VA Medical Center - Ann Arbor, MI

2017 to 2018

Inventory Management

- Direct Supervisor for the Central Supply Section to include twenty individuals over three shifts as well as weekends.
- Provide 24-7 operational support to service the medical center's needs to include, resupplying supply closets, on call emergent needs, crash carts for medical emergencies, and building case carts for surgery service.
- Performs management and oversight of inventory, property accountability, logistics operations, reutilization, transfer, donation, and sale of property.
- Identifies and forecasts requirements for budgeting, manpower, inventory, and space to sustain continuous uninterrupted care for our Veterans and provide support to medical center staff.

- Provide technical advice to personnel regarding the proper identification, handling, packing and labeling of items required for disposal.
- Reviewed the compliance of organizational policies in the areas and processes of disposal turn-in, reutilization, transfer, and donations
- Plans and schedules specific work assignments on daily activities, or project-to-project basis within specific time requirements while making appropriate arrangements for adequate personnel, materials and equipment to accomplish the mission.
- Issue or provide technical advice, guidance, training, instruction and assistance to assigned activities of staff.
- Assists in the establishment of performance standards and makes recommendations for performance appraisals.
- Conducts counselings with employees on disciplinary issues and follow proper procedure if disciplinary action is required.
- Manages a primary supply area with 1200 items that distributes to 52 secondary areas and three CBOC Clinics.
- Research and review inventory discrepancies both physically and systematically, making corrections where needed.
- Schedules cycle counts and cleaning/outdating of expired products.

Distribution Chief

VA Medical Center - Ann Arbor, MI
2014 to 2017

- Managed three sections that comprised of the Distribution Section, to include the hospital receiving warehouse, mailroom, and the offsite warehouse.
- Performs a variety of tasks relating to the performance of the property disposal system through the areas of reutilization, transfer, donation, and sale of property.
- Performed property disposal management, including control and advisory activities. Developed property disposal policies and procedures. Performed reutilization, transfer, donation and sales of products.
- Planned and scheduled specific work assignments on daily activities, or project-to-project basis within specific time requirements. Arranged for adequate personnel, materials, and equipment to accomplish the mission.
- Assigned daily tasks to be performed while explaining prescribed methods, and procedures.
- Instructed subordinates on new procedures and provided problem solving assistance while reviewing compliance, progress, and completion.
- Assisted in the establishment of performance standards and made recommendations for performance appraisals.
- Counseled employees on disciplinary issues and made recommendations of disciplinary action.
- Ensured that regulations governing safety and housekeeping were observed with appropriate protective clothing and equipment being utilized.
- Explained and implemented such personnel programs as equal opportunity, position management, position description review, and labor relations while maintaining production reports and records.

Assistant Canteen Chief

VA Medical Center - Ann Arbor, MI
2009 to 2013

- November of 2010 assumed responsibilities of the vending program and implemented the new Vendmax system.

- March of 2011 attended the VCS University for Leadership Essentials class.
- Promoted to Assistant Canteen Chief of food in April 2011.
- July of 2011 attended VCS University for Operation Essentials.
- Responsible for weekly and monthly stock counts to aid in meeting food gross and supply costs goals.
- Verified food recalls ensuring product was not currently in stock, conducted removal, and followed any further actions required.

Repair Technician

Liebherr Aerospace

2006 to 2008

- Repaired various aircraft high pressure and regulating valves to airworthy status.
- Incoming/outgoing bench testing to include non-destructive testing.
- Troubleshoot and replacement of bad components.
- Certification of operation.

Material Handler

Ritter Technology - Farmington Hills, MI

2005 to 2006

- Supported sales department by pulling customer orders.
- Received and checked in new material.
- Prepared orders for shipment.
- Organized materials to keep steady flow through shop.
- Operated manual and powered lifting equipment.

Manpower/Contractor

Pfizer - Ann Arbor, MI

2004 to 2005

Materials Management/Supply Chain Management

- Performs work to dispose of personal, excess property to include reutilization and donation.
- Responsible for storage/retrieval of supplies and equipment from off-site warehouse.
- Maintained Pfizer fleet vehicles.
- Cylinder management for on-site labs.
- Managed asset disposition program.
- Operated manual and powered lifting equipment.

Education

Some College/Two year Vocational School in Airframe And Powerplant

Michigan Institute of Aviation and Technology - Belleville, MI

May 2001 to February 2003

Skills

- Warehouse Experience
- Forklift
- Aircraft Maintenance

- Supply Chain
- Program Management
- Manufacturing
- Materials Management
- Non-destructive Testing
- Order Picking
- Freight Experience
- Quality Inspection
- Mechanical Knowledge
- SAP
- Materials Handling
- Shipping & Receiving
- Microsoft Excel
- Leadership
- Computer literacy
- Warehouse management
- Microsoft Office
- Sales Support
- Quality Control
- Mechanic Experience
- Time management
- Conflict management
- Microsoft Word
- Yard jockey
- Tractor-trailer
- Logistics
- Purchasing

Military Service

Branch: Marines

Service Country: United States

Rank: Sergeant/E-5

August 1995 to August 1999

Certifications and Licenses

Chauffeur License/CDL A

Forklift Certification

Additional Information

- Proficient in all aspects of supply chain management to include supply support, equipment, property disposal, warehousing, transportation, training, and resource management.
- Performed property disposal management, including control and advisory activities. Developed property disposal policies and procedures. Performed reutilization, transfer, donation and sales of products.
- Identifies initial or new requirements, coordinates, develops, and implements new and revised policies, procedures, plans, and programs.
- Performs analytical and evaluation methods to find areas of improvement in the supply chain service, reducing overstock, eliminating outages, reducing overall costs, and reducing excess materials.
- Assists in supervising the primary supply area while reviewing data trends, investigates discrepancies, and performs necessary adjustments to meet the mission of the facility.
- Reduced waste and abuse of materials, and made recommendations, which ensured a positive impact on the facilities budget.
- Recipient of outstanding audit reviews within the Distribution section over many years.
- Received outstanding rating on annual review for the past two performance rating periods.