

Antonio Dominguez-Baylon

(720) 382-0455
Tonedominguez300zxtt@gmail.com

Summary

Known for leadership and interpersonal skills. Ability to meet deadlines and work with cross-functional teams. Adaptable to multifunctional roles. Customer service, cable installation and box truck driving experience. Skills include:

- Box Truck Driver
- Mover
- Splicing and Underground Cable Contractor
- Customer Service Representative
- On the Job Foremen
- Warehouse/Manufacturing
- Maintenance worker
-

-
-

- Professional Experience

-

- Advenir at Del Arte, Aurora, Colorado
- Maintenance Tech March 2018 - Current
- Working closely with resident to help improve their homes and maintain the property. Completed daily work orders. Worked on and turned apartments to prepare for new residents.
- Provided excellent customer service to residents to help improve their homes and maintain the grounds of the property.
- Worked to completed daily work orders that were submitted by residents and office staff.
- When resident would move out, was responsible for cleaning and fixing all problems in apartment in order to make available for new residents.

-

-

- CTDI Communications, Aurora, Colorado
- Box Truck Driver and Deliverer, June 2017- February 2018
- Responsible for interacting with employees at Xfinity stores and restocking the store shelves. Operated a box truck on multiple different routes including a mountain. Responsible for documenting deliveries and filing paperwork.
- Worked with Xfinity employees to determine weekly needs to be met, as well as restocked shelves to follow FIFO.
- Operated a box truck on varying routes, including a mountain route once a week.
- Completed daily logs documenting deliveries that were completed.

-

-

-

- Dycom INC / STC, Denver, Colorado
- Cable Installer, January 2016- June 2017
- Responsible for interacting with the customer on site to determine specific needs for each job. Determining the setup and location of the cable itself. Having knowledge of both splicing and underground installation to complete the job accurately.
- Met with the customer on site to discuss specific needs of each individual, making sure that each customer gets a quality install that fits both their needs and wants.
- Analyzing the job location to determine how and where the install will take place, this helps identify the needed materials and tools for the specific job.
- Understanding the different applications of splicing versus underground, this provides the most efficient plan of action for each job.

-

-

- APACA Van Lines, Denver, Colorado

- Box Truck Driver and Mover, June 2015- January 2016
- Required to drive the box truck to deliver the customers belongings. Moving large and fragile items multiple times. Working in a team setting to accomplish a job together. Documenting the completed tasks that were accomplished each day.
- Drove the box truck to the customers location to load and unload, trained how to safely operate and drive the truck.
- Moved large items that were delicate with care, to keep the customer happy with their experience.
- Ran the crew that moved and performed documentation to identify the accomplishments of that day.
- Provided excellent customer care, to encourage repeat customers.
-