

Antonio McClendon
Proficient Performance Professional
antoniomcclendon@yahoo.com

===== Experience =====

Target

Warehouse Worker

5/2007 to 9/2011

Summary: My strategic skills include process development and critical thinking. As a floor level worker, I developed a process to improve output and production in picking operations. The efficiency and simplicity of this process, allow third party labor to perform the task, subsequently saving the company money. In addition I have several years experience in leading on various levels. I will love the opportunity to add shareholder value to your company.

The Home Depot

Inventory Control Associate

1/2003 to 4/2007

Summary: Managed locations in warehouse by ensuring an accurate inventory. Stored items by location, class, department, and strategy. Analyzed and communicated reports such as trailers in transit, capacity in warehouse, and several others.

===== Education =====

University of Phoenix

(BSEM) Bachelor's of Science Business Management Business Management and Operations
2010 to 2014

Savannah Technical College

Certificate of Completion Business Courses

2002 to 2004

Savannah High

Business, Management, Marketing, and Related Support Services

1998 to 2001

Resume data from LinkedIn