

Arnulfo Ultreras, Jr.

15132 Grand Ave. #13 ♦ Lake Elsinore, CA 92530

aultrerasjr@yahoo.com ♦ 323.781.4093 (c)

Summary of Qualifications

Hardworking, dependable and experienced construction and mechanics professional with exceptional construction skills and a background in working with many different aspects of construction, warehouse, and general labor work, in both residential and commercial settings.

- Expertise in a wide range of construction and machine assembly, materials and equipment; familiar with building processes, including skillfully working on time-sensitive projects from beginning to completion.
 - Knowledgeable in machine assembly, general carpentry, roofing, t-bar, inventory of materials, site preparation and other general construction skills.
 - Proficient in hand and power tools and machinery, including drills, air compressors, forklifts, saws, scaffolding, 6-foot parry, laser levels, rules, nail guns. Has a valid California driver's license with reliable vehicle. Owns personal hand tools and ability to lift up to 50 lbs.
 - Excellent communication skills, ability to work well with customers and other workers. Fluent in both English and Spanish. Has trade-related math skills. Proficient in assembly, packaging shipping and delivery of materials in a timely and professional manner.
 - Has High School diploma (Bell High School, 1992), college education (Fullerton Community College, 2000-2003), and has served in United States Marine Corp. Reserves (1993-1997).
-

Experience Highlights

JWC Environmental, Inc. – Santa Ana, California

Mechanical Technician, 2013-Present

Supervisor: Vicente Quintana / (office) (714) 428-4794

Works in time-sensitive and client-oriented environment to efficiently and accurately assemble and disassemble large-scale grinders, using hand and power tools, fixtures, assembly instructions and test equipment. Conveys material or blueprint discrepancies to supervisors as needed; understands paint specifications, mixture and application instructions. Assists in crating and shipment preparation to clients. Troubleshoots equipment to determine components to be replaced or repaired. Certified to drive a forklift and use electrical hoisting equipment, mechanical press. Ability to read and interpret assembly diagrams, sales orders and other blueprints.

Acoustical Construction, Inc. - Sun Valley, California

Fourth-Stage Apprentice, 2007-2010, 2011-2013
Supervisor: Dan Perkins / (office) (818) 767-0325

Member of crew responsible for plan-reading, layout preparation, shooting wire, and installing acoustic ceilings into commercial projects. Worked in conjunction with other associates, other construction groups, superintendents and inspectors to coordinate and complete projects in a timely manner.

N2 Imaging Systems – Irvine, California
Mechanical Technician, 2010-2011
Supervisor: Carlos Juarez / (office) (714) 573-8836

Oversaw the disassembly and packaging of night vision cameras and telescopes for a company subcontracted for the United States government; responsible for serializing units, ensuring proper serial coding and overseeing serial accuracy. Worked closely with assembly and production units to ensure proper fabrications of materials, and worked closely in maintaining proper workflow and organization to the department. Also responsible for timely shipping and delivery to customers. Input serial and shipping information into local computer system.

Simon Says Roofing – San Jose, California
Roofer, 2005-2007

Experienced in tearing down, applying and correcting roofs for homes and commercial businesses. Skilled at making on-site corrections, and modifications to team work. Acquired knowledge of subcontracting rules and regulations through work as a subcontractor with Home Depot. Adept at service calls for leaks, water damage, or other problems, and made small repairs as needed.

- Assistant supervisor to crews, including reporting hours for payroll. Handled scheduling for crews to various jobsites.

Diamond Building Materials – Fountain Valley, California
Delivery and Warehouseman, 2003-2005

Headed shipping and received for construction company specializing in windows and doors; delivered windows and doors throughout Orange and Los Angeles Counties using box truck; occasional installation of windows and doors; organized and maintained warehouse.

Smith Emery Laboratories – Anaheim, California
Driver/Soils Technician, 1998-2002

Worked for company specializing in soil testing on concrete materials. Conducted compaction tests on soils and aggregates; job included picking up concrete, soil, rebar and other construction materials from jobsites. Delivered supplies to jobsites as needed.