Form W-4 (2017)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2017 expires February 15, 2018. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you can't claim exemption from withholding if your total income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions don't apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you aren't exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2017. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

INJURY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Injured Worker's Responsibilities

As your employer, we are concerned about your full recovery. Reasonable and necessary medical care will be paid for any compensable work injury. Medically authorized time away from work will be reimbursed in accordance with the State of Minnesota workers' compensation laws. Wherever possible light duty restrictions imposed as a result of your injury will be accommodated.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE INJURED WORKER:

Minnesota Rule Sec. 5221.0430, Subp. 1 requires that you choose one primary health care provider. Subpart 2 places limitations on your right to change primary health care providers. Discuss with your employer any change in health care provider.

Attend all scheduled appointments. While on physical limitations, visits should be a minimum of once every two weeks. Failure to have current medical support for disability may result in termination of benefits. Schedule your next appointment immediately after your doctor visit, before you leave the clinic if possible.

Obtain a Report of Workability from your physician at every appointment, a minimum of once every two weeks. M.R. 5221.0420 requires that your physician cooperate with return to work planning and that you be released to return to work at the earliest appropriate time.

Immediately following your appointment, provide a copy of the report to the designated employer representative. You should deliver this in person so that changes in work restrictions may be addressed and any questions answered.

Follow all physical restrictions at home and at work.

Report to work and perform physically suitable tasks as assigned. These may or may not be in your regular department. The work may or may not be on your usual shift.

Maintain regular, weekly, communication with your employer if you are unable to return to work. Contact your employer a minimum of after every visit with your primary health care provider. Keep the claims representative advised of your status.

Notify your employer immediately of any new injuries or conditions that impact your physical condition.

If it is necessary to miss scheduled work due to a work injury, you must be seen by your primary health care provider the same day in order to receive compensation for the time away from work. The physician must complete a Report of Workability.

I have read my responsibilities and agree to abide by these guidelines.

Important/Importante

LOST OR STOLEN PAYCHECKS

If a paycheck is lost (missing, misplaced, destroyed, lost in the mail, etc.), you must notify your staffing recruiter that the check cannot be found. If it can be verified that the check has not been cashed, ESSG will stop payment on the check and re-issue the check to you, deducting a fee of between $25-$35.

If your paycheck was stolen, you must first file a police report before we can re-issue the check. Once you have done so, you must provide a copy of the police report to your staffing recruiter that the check was stolen. If the check has not been cashed and if the loss of the check was not your fault, ESSG will issue a new check and no fee will be deducted.

CHEQUES DE PAGO PERDIDOS O ROBADOS

Si un cheque de pago se pierde (que falta, fuera de lugar, destruido, perdido en el correo, etc), usted debe notificar a su reclutador de personal que el cheque no se puede encontrar. Si se puede verificar que el cheque no ha sido cobrado, ESSG se detendrá el cheque de pago y reemitir el cheque a usted, descontando un cargo de entre $ 25 - $ 35.

Si su cheque de pago fue robado, primero debe denunciar el robo a la policía antes de que podamos volver a emitir el cheque. Una vez hecho esto, usted debe proporcionar una copia de la denuncia a su reclutador de personal que el cheque fue robado. Si el cheque no ha sido cobrado y si la pérdida del cheque no fue su culpa, ESSG emitirá un nuevo cheque y no hay cuota se deducirá.
