BRADLEY J ADAMS

OBJECTIVE

Continue to gain experience in the manufacturing and/or aerospace industries, to better perform the tasks I am capable of performing while expanding my capabilities to multiple areas of production.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

Experience in both the production and quality assurance aspects of manufacturing, willingness to learn and desire to understand the processes.

EXPERIENCEPCC STRUCTURALS, Ogden, UT

January 2019- January 2020

Visually and Dimensionally inspected all work using a wide variety of techniques and equipment including calipers, micrometers, UTT, etc. Worked hand in hand with welders and NDT technicians to ensure the quality of critical aerospace parts.

THE BOEING COMPANY, Salt Lake City, UT

April 2018- Jan 2019

Working in 737 consoles and sub assemblies; part of a Continuous Improvement, striving to perfect our services and improve our quality. Constant communication and dealings with warehouse and other departments related to factory and fabrication locations.

CAFÉ ZUPAS, Layton UT

March 2016-April 2018

Responsible for preparing and cooking all soups, crème burlees, and other necessary items for the line that need to be cooked or prepared. Keeping the kitchen clean and organized and running effectively, assembling new kitchen equipment when received, and organizing materials for a successful shift.

MORMON MISSIONARY, Mozambique

March 2014-February 2016

I served as a missionary and acquired a love for hard work and dedication. Responsibilities included daily and weekly planning and goal setting, constant learning and growing, adapting and adjusting to different environments and situations within each environment, assembling any number of household items for people as a form of service, and a love for hard work.

EDUCATION

Roy High School, Roy, Utah, high school diploma, June 2013

Current student at Salt Lake Community College in Engineering program. Transferring to Weber State to pursue a bachelor's degree.

COMMUNICATION

I have provided humanitarian service for two years in Mozambique Africa. This required me to communicate with a diverse array of different people in different settings and allowed me to grow in how I communicate with those around me. I am fluent in Portuguese. I am confident in my abilities to communicate in a variety of situations.
