Work Experience

Meat Wrapper/stuffer

valley packing - La Salle, CO

August 2018 to December 2020

My job when i first start at valley packing was too help customers with our retail side of the store, help get there orders that they placed out in a quickly manner, and lastly i would help stuff large pieces of meat like T-bones, ribeyes, chuck roasts just to name a few. I would also throw 30-60LB lugs of meat into a meat grinder where i would grind it and get it ready to stuff in to hamburger bags. Some of my accomplishments while i was there were learning how to use all the machines there i learned how to stuff out linked bratwursts as it was a little more difficult. I started off at 14$ and ended being paid 16.50$ when i was towards the end of my job there.

Box Stacker

JBS Beef Plant - Greeley, CO

January 2017 to May 2017

my job was to stack boxes that hard product in them and were labeled according. i would stack them on pallets so we can cling wrap them to get ready to send to shipping where they would load it on a semi. i also would have to keep my area clean by sweeping and keeping debris from conveyor belt. my accomplishments while i was there would have to be that i got my fork lift license and was able to help load semis.
