I have worked many jobs over the past few years and have learned a variety of skills. I believe I have all the skills you are looking for in a worker and then some. I am looking for long term employment and would like to see myself moving up in the company over time. Thank you for your time as well as your consideration. Have a wonderful Day.

while working at this facility we would have to dress in and dress out because it was a clean room environment.

This meant

we would have to clean every surface after every process. Having to do so lead me to have a keen eye for detail and a longing for a clean work environment that I will maintain.
