

Charles S. Parzyck III
18 Butterfly Lane
Levittown, Pa 19054
Home Phone: 21-946-5644
Cell Home: 215-906-8695

- Objective: To work in a competitive and challenging environment to further enhance my Maintenance operational and leadership skills.
- Education: State of California High School & Equivalency Program (GED) - 1995
Riverside High School - 1987 to 1990
- Employment: 9/14 to present - Griff Paper & Films
Machine Operator/ Team Leader/Maintenance
- Operator of a 110 in. Dusenbury Slitter & 60 in. Deacro slitter for producing pressure sensitive tapes and labels for distribution. Maintain computer set-up and correct blade set-up for the label stock with a 1/64 of tolerance.
- Overseas the quality and packaging control of 5 staff members for shipping product to outside clients and maintains accurate and precise records for inventory control.
- Carryout all duties that are necessary in resolving reactionary activities, and report the need for further maintenance and safety to supervising staff.
- Ensure the proper use of all tools in the workshop for cutting, measuring and machine set up the tolerance of a thirty second. General maintenance and review works performed by them to ensure that they are in good condition.
- Carryout detailed evaluation of workshop equipment to ensure that they are in good condition for proper functioning. Assist less skilled workers in different phases of slitting operations.
- Familiar in the lockout and tagout procedures before maintenance is completed.

Ensure maximum safety of all workers under their supervision by ensuring that they observe all safety measures to the latter, and report conditions that are likely to endanger safety of workers to management for quick resolution.

12/09 to 1/13 - Mannkraft

Clamp Truck Driver

Track receipts, movement, location, and consumption of roll stock inventory using RF and vehicle mounted units (VMIs).

Increase material handling efficiency and inventory accuracy. Reduce the number of partial rolls in inventory. Schedule based on accurate inventory information. Identify discrepancies between rolls scheduled vs. rolls consumed to highlight and eliminate unnecessary width and paper substitutions; Identify specific rolls used for every setup and job produced at the corrugator gaining valuable information required to address and resolve quality and supplier issues. Knowledge of running control operations for roll stands and splicers. Fills in on the wet end, of a 98 inch Fosber Corrugator.

06/04 to 12/09- Converter Specialties

Slitter/Forklift Operator

Maintains and runs a slitter machine up to 78 inches. Responsibilities include Skidding rolls, forklift and hoist operations. Packaging and labeling product for distribution. Assistant to supervisor for all work orders and provide guidance and information as needed.