Today at the end of the shift CHRIS come to ask me why we keep move him around . I explain to him because we rotate the people a day off so whoever is off you will fill in on that spot . and today I schedule him to transfer the apples supply to multivac2 but he a bit late because that job need to come a bit early just to make sure we have all the apples supply ahead ready just to start up the line. whenever people ready got on the line we start up right the way . we don't want everyone get on the line already and don't have apples in the hopper . so when he come a bit late I have other guy take his spot just to make sure it ready . and I ask him why you not come early enough that why I have to have someone else take it . and he told me even he come 2 pm still can't make it on time because no parking spot . I tell him why some of the people come at 2.30pm they still make it in to the room on time . he say because he have to put the yellow boots on it take a long time he say 10 minute just to put a yellow on it . I ask him why it take so long and I ask him to show me how he put it on . and when he put on it only take 1 minute only . I just feel like he keep lie to us to make a excuse . some time I see him come really early but he take so long to get ready . please keep that ask a document .

Thank you
