I have experience in a lot of areas ranging from agriculture, energy, and retail/sales. The past 3 years I've been solely in Retail/Sales. Three of the four have been management. I'm a very good people person and able to keep interactions going and pleasant. I am also a very quick thinker, making me also a great problem solver. While I have experience in a lot of areas I chose retail/sales based off the way I naturally connect with people. Willing to relocate: Anywhere

Authorized to work in the US for any employer
