

Colton Prall

Greeley, CO 80634
Amity.paige@gmail.com
970-673-2839

Resourceful and knowledgeable in construction and oilfield maintenance. Excellent common sense and decision-making abilities. Able to conduct business in a professional manner. Self-motivated, hard-working individual. Quick and eager to learn new skills in an adapting oilfield environment.

Work Experience

---

Omnitrax GWR Railroad
June 2018 to Present

Freight conductor for the railroad, ensures safe handling of cargo freight rail cars and locomotive, service of customers daily as well as all paperwork involved.

Foreman

Tanco Engineering
September 2014 to June 2018

for a tank company that builds and maintains above ground storage tanks. In charge of all day to day operations and crew along with field operations.

Sinclair Oil
April 2013 to September 2014

Worked in the field as a pipeline welder. Completed 6G along with branch weld test. Became proficient in stringing pipeline along with running the equipment involved.

Tanco Engineering
July 2010 to April 2013

Worked in the field building and repairing above ground storage tanks. Started as a helper and quickly moved up to welder, then again to lead welder.

Education

---

High School Diploma

Northridge High School - Greeley, CO
May 2009

Aims Community College - Greeley, CO

Skills

---

RAILROAD, PIPELINE, MIG, MIG WELDING, STICK WELDING

Additional Information

---

Skills

Exceptional organization skills involving blocking hundreds of railroad cars per destination

NCCCO Certified in swing cab telescopic boom crane

Proficient through 6 G stick welding tests

Certified in MIG Welding

Branch test certified

Extensive knowledge in tank building and repair

Intermediate knowledge of pipeline production

Certified rigger and signal person

Fire safety and confined space training

Certified Railroad Conductor