

I want to report chea to HR. I need the contact information. I have dealt with his harassment for months and now this will be affecting my hours.

3 1/2 hours <sup>weekly</sup> may not seem like that much but I pay around $3,000 in bills monthly with strict pay periods. and with no assistance.

I am done with him. Either I talk to him ~~tomorrow~~ tomorrow or ~~if~~ and we come to an understanding that 2nd shift operates slightly differently or I will be reporting him.

This is not OK because it is creating a toxic work environment as well as it is destroying my mental Health.
