Applicant Certification and Authorization

I authorize Employer Solutions Staffing Group (ESSG) to use the information and statements contained in this application to determine my qualifications for employment. I authorize ESSG to make inquiries of my former employers, except as indicated in this application, regarding my previous duties, responsibilities, performance, compensation and eligibility for rehire.

I understand that a comprehensive background check may be conducted to determine my eligibility for hire by certain clients of ESSG. This may include but is not limited to, investigations of criminal and/or conviction records, driving records and/or a drug screen test as required by clients, government regulations or by ESSG policies.

I release ESSG and other persons or entities from any claims that might be based on ESSG's decision to conduct a background check.

I certify that all statements made in my application are true and accurate and that I have not omitted any material information or provided false or misleading information. I understand that any material omission or misrepresentation will result in my disqualification from consideration for employment or, if discovered after I begin employment, will result in my termination.

If hired, I agree to abide by the policies and procedures of ESSG.

Employer Solutions Staffing Group Direct Deposit Authorization

If you are applying for direct deposit, please make sure that you are mark whether the account is a savings or checking. Failure to provide this information can result in the deposit being delayed for several days. Please also note that it is possible for your direct deposit to be delayed a day or two the first week that your direct deposit is processed. Every bank is different and, although this doesn't happen frequently, it does happen. If you cannot wait a day or two past pay day for your deposit, then we suggest staying with a paper paycheck. The time that the money goes into your account on pay day varies by bank. Please allow until at least 10 am on your pay date for the deposit to show.

Form W-4 (2012)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2012 expires February 18, 2013. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2012. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-4, at www.irs.gov/w4. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

For accuracy, complete all worksheets that apply.

- If you plan to itemize or claim adjustments to income and want to reduce your withholding, see the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet on page 2.
- If you are single and have more than one job or are married and you and your spouse both work and the combined earnings from all jobs exceed $40,000 ($10,000 if married), see the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 2 to avoid having too little tax withheld.
- If neither of the above situations applies, stop here and enter the number from line H on line 5 of Form W-4 below.

Separate here and give Form W-4 to your employer. Keep the top part for your records.

Notification of Colorado Law Requirement – Unemployment Acknowledgement

According to Colorado Statutes section 8-73-105.3. A temporary employee who is given a notice that the employee is required to contact or notify the employer upon completion of an assignment and to be available to work, as agreed upon at the time of hire, during a specified period of time, on specified dates, or upon call by the employer on an as-needed basis and who does not contact or notify the employer upon completion of an assignment in compliance with the notice and is not available to work at the agreed-upon times is deemed to have voluntarily terminated employment for the purpose of determining benefits pursuant to section 8-73-108 (5) (e). Also, a temporary employee who agrees to work on an as-needed basis and refuses all work within three separate pay periods when contacted by the employer is deemed to have voluntarily terminated employment for reasons that may or may not allow an award of benefits pursuant to section 8-73-108.

It is your responsibility to contact or notify ESSG once your assignment ends. If you fail to do so, it may affect your unemployment benefits.

I understand by signing this form that I am responsible to contact or notify ESSG once an assignment ends. I also acknowledge that I have received a separate copy of this form. _____ (Initial)

This agreement made this _____ day of _____, 201____, between Employer Solutions Staffing Group LLC, hereinafter referred to as "employer", and _____ hereafter referred to as "employee".

WITNESSETH:

For the duration of my employment and after resignation or termination of this employment with employer, for any reason whatsoever, the employee shall not use or disclose to any other person or company, and confidential or proprietary information or know-how related to the business of the employer.

In view of the difficulty of determining the amount of damages which may result to the employer from a violation of any of the provisions hereof, the employee agrees to pay to the employer the sum of $10,000 as liquidated damages for every such violation; provided, however, that the payment of such amount as liquidated damages shall not be construed as a release or waiver by the employer of the right to prevent any such violation in equity or otherwise.

INJURY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Injured Worker's Responsibilities

As your employer, we are concerned about your full recovery. Reasonable and necessary medical care will be paid for any compensable work injury. Medically authorized time away from work will be reimbursed in accordance with the State of Minnesota workers' compensation laws. Wherever possible light duty restrictions imposed as a result of your injury will be accommodated.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE INJURED WORKER:

Minnesota Rule Sec. 5221.0430, Subp. 1 requires that you choose one primary health care provider. Subpart 2 places limitations on your right to change primary health care providers. Discuss with your employer any change in health care provider.

Attend all scheduled appointments. While on physical limitations, visits should be a minimum of once every two weeks. Failure to have current medical support for disability may result in termination of benefits. Schedule your next appointment immediately after your doctor visit, before you leave the clinic if possible.

Obtain a Report of Workability from your physician at every appointment, a minimum of once every two weeks. M.R. 5221.0420 requires that your physician cooperate with return to work planning and that you be released to return to work at the earliest appropriate time.

Immediately following your appointment, provide a copy of the report to the designated employer representative. You should deliver this in person so that changes in work restrictions may be addressed and any questions answered.

Follow all physical restrictions at home and at work.

Report to work and perform physically suitable tasks as assigned. These may or may not be in your regular department. The work may or may not be on your usual shift.

Maintain regular, weekly, communication with your employer if you are unable to return to work. Contact your employer a minimum of after every visit with your primary health care provider. Keep the claims representative advised of your status.

Notify your employer immediately of any new injuries or conditions that impact your physical condition.

If it is necessary to miss scheduled work due to a work injury, you must be seen by your primary health care provider the same day in order to receive compensation for the time away from work. The physician must complete a Report of Workability.

I have read my responsibilities and agree to abide by these guidelines.
