Work Experience

---

Harvest team

Lightshade Labs - Denver, CO

October 2020 to Present

Order Selector/Forklift Operator

KeHE Distributors - Aurora, CO

September 2020 to Present

Forklift Operator

The Home Depot - Denver, CO

February 2020 to August 2020

- Excelled in a fast paced working environment without sacrificing safety
- Maintained a clean and orderly work area
- Pick orders and band them together.

Package Handler

UPS - Commerce City, CO

November 2019 to February 2020

I worked at ups in the sorting part. I would have to scan each package at a fast pace then put the package on the correct conveyor belt.

Warehouse Worker

Kta llc - Denver, CO

December 2018 to August 2019

Team Leader

Kerr panel manufacturing - Commerce City, CO

August 2014 to July 2018

I used to make aluminum honeycomb panels. We would have to set up all our Materials and get everything ready to do a "lay-up". I would have to sand the aluminum then we clean those very well. Then we would have to expand our honeycomb core. I would drive our forklift a lot and never had an accident. We had a lot of big machines that I would use and be around. I worked around a lot of types of epoxy and chemicals. I would also load/unload delivery trucks with our forklift.

Head Mechanic

CHIPPERS LANES - Broomfield, CO

August 2008 to July 2014

I started working in the kitchen as a cook. I work as a cook for about a year and a half. Then I worked as front desk and bartender for about 2 years. I helped customers and made drinks for the customers. Then I started working in the back on the bowling machines. I would have to use power tools and hand tools to fix them. I would perform daily maintenance on them and keep them nice and clean.
