Im seeking a job that will later turn into a long term career. Ive worked in a variety of places and gained plenty of customer service experience over the years. Im ready and willing to learn new things, i have open availability, have no problems working holidays or longer than expected. I look forward to hearing from you and working with you.

Thank you

Other skills: im fairly computer savvy, i can learn pretty much any program you throw at me with little to no supervision. I also, in my spare time edit photos and video so i have somewhat an eye for detail.

Authorized to work in the US for any employer
