Summary

I'm a really hard worker looking to get some experience in landscaping. I want to own a farm and a bunch of animals. I like being outside and working, and making things look nice. I'm a pretty smart person and I have a pretty good intuition. I can work whenever I'm needed and when I'm not, and I'll have my permit really soon at my writing this. I am a capable driver though.

Experience

Little Angels Pony And Pals

March 2017 to March 2017

Farm Hand

Fort Collins, Colorado

I had gotten in trouble in school for getting in a fight (I was actually helping a friend that was getting jumped) and they wanted me to do community service. I moved hay around, changed the animals bedding, and moved fallen branches off the pathways. We did something with the food to I'm pretty sure but I don't remember.

Prospectors Gold And Gems

November 2015 to February 2017

Helper

Fort Collins, Colorado

My mom took pictures of jewelry for their website, I helped with that sometimes. I would also help in the shop where they melted medal and turned it into coins and bars, and I would polish and pack them.

Dads Friend

October 2014 to March 2015

Construction Worker

Wellington, CO

We were building a workshop for my dads friend that would eventually be a painters shop but I didn't help with that part. Though I did help take parts off a truck to be painted. Building the shop I helped with framing and putting the insulation in. I was young so they didn't want me on scaffolding with power tools. I also help set the concrete floor.

Family/Friends

January 2012 to Current

Odd Jobs

Fort Collins, Colorado

Mowing lawns, shoveling snow digging out space for a garden, fixing cars, motorcycles, and lawn mowers. Moving boxes, loading trailers, general maintenance, cleaning. I helped build a set for a play, babysitting, animal sitting. Probably more I can't remember at the time of writing this.

Education and Training

Rocky Mountain High School

No Degree

Fort Collins, CO

Singing

I've been in choir since 6th grade, I've spent countless hours perfecting my voice. It's been the biggest part of my life since I started, and I'm proud of how far I've come.
