ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

It is Corporate Management Group's (CMG) policy that all employees should be able to enjoy a work environment free from all forms of discrimination, including harassment. As such, CMG is committed to vigorously enforcing their Anti-harassment Policy. This policy applies to all employees of the organization (without regard to position) and individuals not directly connected to CMG (e.g., an outside vendor, consultant, customer or guest). Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits employment discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local commission, disability, sexual orientation or veteran status. Harassment is considered a form of discrimination and is specifically included among the prohibitions under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. In addition, retaliation or reprisal taken against anyone who has expressed concern about harassment or discrimination against the individual raising the concern is illegal.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) defines sexual harassment as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexual comments, or other verbal or physical acts of a sexual or sex-based nature including, but not limited to drawings, pictures, jokes, and/or teasing where (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or a condition of an individual's employment; (2) an employment decision is based on an individual's acceptance or rejection of such conduct; or (3) such conduct interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment."

The Anti-harassment Policy prohibits harassment and/or retaliation by any individual employed by, doing business with or for, or visiting CMG. Employees who believe they have been the subject of harassment and/or retaliation or an employee who may have been witness to harassment and/or retaliation must report the incident immediately. Information and/or allegations must be reported to a manager of CMG (by telephoning 866.920.1425 or 303.920.1425). Only those who have an immediate need to know, including the alleged target of harassment or retaliation, the alleged harassers or retaliators, and any witnesses may find out the identity of the complainant. All individuals contacted in the course of an investigation will be advised that all persons involved in a charge are entitled to respect and that any retaliation or reprisal against an individual who is an alleged target of harassment or retaliation, who has made a complaint, or who has provided information in connection with a complaint, is a separate violation of CMG's policy. All information will be disclosed only on a need-to-know basis to allow CMG to investigate and resolve the incident. CMG recognizes the serious nature of harassment and therefore will endeavor to protect the employee who may have been subjected to harassment, any witnesses and the party against whom allegations have been filed to every possible extent.

Harassment is unlawful and has a negative impact on employees. Violation of the Anti-harassment Policy will not be tolerated by CMG and may result in discipline up to and including termination. Offensive acts or conduct have no legitimate business purpose; accordingly, any employee, regardless of his/her position within CMG, who it is determined has engaged in such conduct will be made to bear the full responsibility for such unlawful conduct.

With respect to sexual harassment, the following is prohibited:

1. Unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and all other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual or otherwise offensive nature, especially where:
 - ☐ Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
 - ☐ Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for decisions affecting an individual's employment; or
 - ☐ Such conduct has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.
2. Offensive comments, jokes, innuendoes and other sexually-oriented statements.

If Harassment Occurs:

1. When possible, confront the harasser and tell him/her to stop. Sometimes a simple confrontation will end the situation.
2. If confrontation is unsuccessful, immediately contact your CMG supervisor to report the harassment.
3. An investigation will be conducted and appropriate action taken, including disciplinary measures. We will investigate, in confidence; all reported incidents of harassment and retaliation.

Employee Non-Compete and Confidentiality Agreement

NONCOMPETE

The Employee and Corporate Management Group (CMG) recognize that due to the nature of Employee's engagement hereunder and the relationship of the Employee to CMG, the Employee will have substantial personal contacts with clients of CMG which are likely to result in the development of strong business and personal ties to and goodwill with the Employee rather than CMG and, as a result, it is likely that such clients would follow the Employee in the event the Employee ceases to be employed by CMG. Accordingly, the Employee agrees as follows:

During the term of employment with CMG the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, either individually or as a partner, agent, employee, stockholder, officer, director, consultant or otherwise, except for the account of and on behalf of CMG, engage in the practice of temporary employment services; nor shall the Employee, in competition with CMG, solicit or otherwise attempt to establish for himself or for any other person, firm or entity any business relationships with any person or entity which was, at any time during the term of this agreement, a client of CMG.

For a period of twelve months after the cessation of employment, for any reason whatsoever, the Employee shall not directly or indirectly, either individually or as a partner, agent, employee, consultant or otherwise, solicit any person or entity to provide or render temporary employment services within the city limits of any city where CMG has clients at the time of cessation of employment.

For a period of twelve months after the cessation of the Employee's employment with CMG for any reason whatsoever, the Employee shall not directly or indirectly, either individually or as a partner, agent, employee, stockholder, officer, director, consultant or otherwise, solicit for employment or employ any person who was an employee of CMG at any time during the term of this agreement.

The parties hereto agree that to the extent that any provision or portion of this Agreement shall be held, found or deemed to be unreasonable, unlawful or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then any such provision or portion thereof shall be deemed to be modified to the extent necessary in order that any such provision or portion thereof shall be legally enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law; and the parties hereto do further agree that any court of competent jurisdiction shall, and the parties hereto do hereby expressly request any court of competent jurisdiction to, enforce any such provision or portion thereof or to modify any such provision or portion thereof in order that any such provision or portion thereof shall be enforced by such court to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. Any remedy available under this Agreement shall be in addition to, and cumulative with, any remedy available to CMG at law, in equity or otherwise.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The Employee acknowledges that in the Employee's work, the Employee will be making use of, acquiring and adding to confidential information of a special and unique nature and value relating to such matters as, but not limited to, CMG's business operations, internal structure, financial affairs, systems, procedures, manuals, confidential reports and lists of clients, as well as the amount, nature and type of services used and preferred by CMG's clients and the fees paid by such clients, all of which shall be deemed to be confidential information. In consideration of work by CMG, the Employee agrees that during the Employment Period and upon and after ceasing to be employed by CMG for any reason whatsoever, the Employee shall not, for any reason or purpose whatsoever, directly or indirectly, divulge or disclose to any person or entity any of such confidential information which was obtained by the Employee as a result of the Employee's employment with CMG, or any information or knowledge respecting the affairs of CMG or any of its officers, directors, employees, stockholders, agencies or referrers of clients learned or conceived by the Employee while in the employ of CMG, but shall hold all of the same inviolate.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The associate handbook was reviewed with me, and I have received my personal copy. I also acknowledge that I have been given the opportunity to ask questions and express concerns during my orientation. Additionally, I understand and support the following:

1. This handbook is intended as a guide and not an employment agreement that creates a contractual relationship, and that the employment relationship may be terminated at the will of either party at any time.
2. The changing needs of the business will require alteration in method, practices and policies, and the company will unilaterally revise, as necessary, to meet these changing needs.
3. I agree to notify CMG Human Resources immediately of any change in my personal data such as phone number, address, emergency notification, etc.
4. I am responsible for the information provided herein and will, upon my separation, return this handbook to CMG Human Resources.

Form W-4 (2015)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2015 expires February 16, 2016. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2015. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

YOU MUST COMPLETE AND RETURN THE BACKGROUND INFORMATION FORM, THE DISCLOSURE FORM AND THE AUTHORIZATION FORM FOR A BACKGROUND CHECK

DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Employer ("the Company") may obtain information about you from a third party consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. Thus, you may be the subject of a "consumer report" and/or an "investigative consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living, and which can involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, or associates. These reports may contain information regarding your credit history, criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history, workers compensation claims or other background checks. Credit history will only be requested where such information is substantially related to the duties and responsibilities of the position for which you are applying. Workers compensation will only be requested in compliance with the ADA and/or any other applicable laws.

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time, to request whether a consumer report has been run about you, and disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report and to request a copy of your report. Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report is an employment history or verification.
