

Charles Steven Denney

17189 West Bernardo Drive

San Diego Ca 92127

Phone: 1-256-749-9502 Email: tripdenney@gmail.com or charles.s.denney@mail.mil

Construction Superintendent

Comprehensive supervisory experience in the construction industry. Background in managing projects in challenging environments such as industrial /commercial and large multi-unit residential, medical and higher education settings. Results-oriented with the ability to manage multiple projects and teams simultaneously coupled with the skill to effectively manage staff of all professional levels and diverse backgrounds in a deadline- driven background. Proficient in Microsoft word, Excel, Outlook adaptive to new technologies and applications.

Employment History

RMA Construction

Construction Superintendent

2011- Present

San Diego Ca

Oversee all phases of new residential construction from beginning to end and release of homes to homeowners. Duties include: submitting plans for review to appropriate channels in local government, scheduling and being present for all inspections, sourcing all sub-contractors, reviewing all estimates, ordering all materials for sub-contractors, scheduling all steps and phases of the construction process to stay on schedule in order to maintain constant flow of over ten new homes at one time, hiring/lay-offs for all company laborers, completely oversee all quality of sub-contractor work and make corrections as necessary, walk-through with home owners to deliver final product to ensure quality and craftsmanship is acceptable to the highest quality, provide warranty maintenance as required.

Responsible for making sure crews are performing to the standard, and safety requirements, ordering materials and making sure deliveries are made on time to ensure time line and dead-lines are met. Holding safety meeting with all crews on a weekly basis. Providing guidance and mentorship to foreman. Handling any issues that arise in a timely manner to insure quality and control to successfully complete each project in or before deadline and within budget.

US Army

Drill Sergeant

Ft. Benning Ga

2009-2011

I Successfully graduated from Drill Sergeant School in 2009. Served as a Drill Sergeant at Ft Benning Ga responsible for training over 1000 Initial Entry Soldiers annually in the areas of physical fitness, Basic and advanced rifle marksmanship, search and rescue operations, patrol and detainee operations, radio communications, wilderness and desert survival techniques, and all general subject of basic combat training. Responsible for indoctrinating soldiers in the fundamentals of military life, Army Core Values, leadership, military bearing, and customs and courtesies. Advised Senior Drill Sergeant on unit matters and performance of soldiers and accounted for over 100,000 of equipment.

Promoted to Senior Drill Sergeant

Duties as the senior Drill Sergeant in a Basic Combat Training Company. Trained over 600 initial entry soldiers in a 4/10 week cycle. Responsible for the accountability, professional development, supervision and evaluation of 3 drill sergeants and 3 instructors, responsible for the professional development and mentoring of 9 additional junior drill sergeants, supervises and initiates instructions to initial entry soldiers in all subjects required to graduate basic training. Assist the first sergeant and Commander in preparation, planning, set-up and execution of all training events. Coordination of training sites, transportation and delivery of meals for over 300 trainees. Accountable for over $250,000 of equipment and weapons.

US Army Engineer
Ft Bragg NC.
2008-2009

(Employment History Continued)

Worked as Site superintendant for government projects including construction of new residential housing, dining facilities, elementary school, recreation gym, classrooms, living quarters and training facilities.

For all projects I worked directly with Department Of Defense hired contractors and subcontractors, Evaluating contractors on work performance, time management and standards. Responsible for planning of operations and enforcing federal standards and regulations. Scheduling of materials and coordinating appropriate contractors to maintain time line. Effective addressing any issues that arise. Managing budget and working directly with project managers and civil engineers to accomplish task and make adjustments to obtain overall success of mission. Held meetings with contractors and military personnel to enforce safety and to ensure project development and deadlines. Responsible for counseling of contractors, initiating termination of contractors, and subcontractors based on violations of work performance, safety, negligence, or not meeting standards and regulations of US government employee. Supervised 36 military personnel and over 75 Department of Defense contractors and labors.

During the period of 2008-2009 I attended Superintendent/ Supervisor / Advanced Leaders Couse and training. OSHA Safety Course, Construction Site Safety Training, Hazmat Certification Course. Heavy Equipment Operator III Course.

Department of the Army Selected to attend United States Army Drill Sergeant School.

US Army Engineer
Baghdad, Iraq
2006-2007

Deployment to Baghdad, Iraq January 2006 for Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Performed Duties as a Combat Engineer/ Convoy Commander lead a team of 18 on route clearance though out Iraq. Removal and Demolition of Improvised explosive devices and land mines along highway's and bridges. Cleared roadways hourly to allow for infantry and support personnel to reach destinations and targets. Performed convoy security missions by escorting vehicles with supplies, ammo, food and water to different locations throughout Iraq.

Constructed security towers, entry control points and barriers for forward operating bases. Removal of all guard rails along highways and bridges due to excessive placement and detonation of improvised explosive devices.

Used explosives to disable bridges, roadways, improvised explosive devices and weapons in a controlled or hostile environment. Deployment and construction of bridges and floating bridges to allow infantry and support personnel to reach destinations to achieve missions.

Worked as construction superintendant of crew of 30 while constructing a training camp and police station for Iraqi National Police. Worked as the Construction Superintendant/Convoy Commander (NCOIC) Non Commissioned Officer in charge of 110 Soldiers, 42 department of defense contractors for KBR Construction and engineering employees and equipment in construction of a K-12 school for Iraqi children. Insuring the overall safety of civilian contractors and key personnel during the development of both projects. Responsible for accountability of soldiers, civilian personnel, equipment, supplies, materials and weapons at all times. Insuring safe transportation and return of soldiers and civilians to forward operating base and job site each day. Responsible for making sure project managers goals and standards were met daily, scheduling of contractors and ordering supplies and materials for civilian contractors. Responsible for job site safety and overall safety of contractors due to hostile environment and time constraints.

Additional duties: Responsible for professional development of 26 assigned soldiers for awards, promotions and professional counseling. Evaluating equipment, weapons, vehicles, communication equipment and soldiers on a daily basis to maintain a high level of readiness. Performed duties as a Plt.Sergeant checking in with each soldier daily on a personal level, providing support, mentorship, and guidance.

US Army Engineer
Ft. Benning GA.
2003-2005
Site Supervisor

(Employment History Continued)

Promoted Site Forman for projects. Worked directly for US Army Corp of Engineers on New Home Construction, water way and levy maintenance, air field and hanger construction, range construction, demolitions of retired building and homes, Construction of classrooms, living quarters and training facilities for basic and advanced individual training facilities with commercial kitchens.

For all projects I worked directly with DOD contractors and subcontractors, Evaluating contractors on work performance, insuring clean and safe sites at all times. Verifying that work was to the highest standard and always ready and present for inspections. Ordering or supplies, materials and tools, Facilitating and planning of operations. Supervised 16 military personnel and over 30 Department of Defense contractors and labors. Responsible for Safety, project time management, Scheduling of contractors and delivery of materials. Performed weekly meeting with contractors and employees on safety, job performance, mission goals, time management and completion of phases of project.

During the period of 2003-2004 I attended Safety courses, Code enforcement training, Supervisor training, Leaders course phase I, II ,III Project Management training, Advanced Heavy Equipment training, Bridge and Concrete Structure Building and maintenance training
Constantly Evaluated by 1st SGT, and held to the highest standards of the US Army Received safety awards quarterly and annually. Received Army Achievement Medal, Army Commendation Medal for job performance and safety.

US Army Engineer
Ft. Benning GA.
2001- 2003

Attended basic training and military occupation school for construction engineer in 2001.

Worked as carpenter and roofing specialist building new homes for military housing for active duty families (Frame To Finish) at Ft. Benning GA, Ft. Rucker AL, Ft Gordon GA. Gulf Breeze Florida . Building of new elementary schools per federal codes and regulations Ft Benning GA. Demolition of 18 4 story WW2 Barracks. Reconstruction of 15 new 3 story barrack buildings in Ft. Benning GA. Kelly Hill and Main Post.

During the period of 2001-2003, I graduated with honors from Combat Engineer School, was promoted from E-1 through the ranks to E-4(PVT-CPL). Attended Safety Courses for local. State, and Government. Hazmat training certified yearly. Attended explosives demolitions training. Received hours of classroom instruction on various construction trades. Attended Heavy equipment operator school and received a master driver certificate for Heavy Construction vehicles and transportation vehicles.

Awards Received: Combat Action Badge, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Award, National Defense Service Medal Global War On Terrorism Service Medal, Iraqi Campaign Medal, A Army Service Medal, Operation Iraqi Freedom Medal, Drivers badge, Mechanics Badge, US Army Ranger Tab.

Education and Training

- Bachelors or Science in Construction Management
- Heavy Equipment Operator
- International Language Institute Arabic
- Nationally Registered Emergency Medical Technician.
- Hazmat training and storage.
- Military Occupation Engineer, Structural, Carpentry, Heavy Equipment Operator,

Thank you for your time and consideration for applied position. References are available.