

Kevin F. Ellis

258 W. Prospect Rd. Apt. 87
Fort Collins, CO 80526
(248) 494-3756 • kevin.ellis248@google.com

Education:

Bachelor of Liberal Arts

- Major: Economics
- Minors: Business Administration and Applied Statistics

Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO

- Expected Graduation: May 2014
- Completed 101 Semester Hours
- Cumulative GPA: 3.359

Relevant Experience:

ECON335: Introduction to Econometrics

Prepared and submitted an analysis report on the effect that the merger with Northwest Airlines, Corp. had on Delta Air Lines, Inc.

- Used the Securities and Exchange Commission annual and quarterly reports of Delta and Northwest to identify the merger and obtain relevant data to develop a statistical model to analysis the effect of the merger.
- Used an econometrics program (Gretl) and a data mining program (RapidMiner 5) to analysis the effect and provide detailed charts.
- Grade received: A

Prepared a presentation based analysis report on the effect of the merger.

- Provided a brief history of Delta Air Lines, Inc.
- Provided charts on the revenues, expenses, gross profit margin and detailed charts to illustrate Delta’s fuel efficiency and demand pattern.

JTC300: Professional and Technical Communication

Prepared and submitted a written evaluation report on President Obama’s 2013 proposed federal budget.

- Contained information on the current fiscal policy situation, analyzed the federal budget in two economic models, and summarized potential impacts on the U.S. economy.
- Grade received on report: A

Work Experience: U.S. Army

January 2008 - January 2012

Assistant Manager to the Executive Medical Officer

September 2010 - November 2011

- Successfully provided medical and administrative support to track and provide the Influenza Vaccine to over 600 military personnel during a two week time period. Supervised a team of personnel that assisted with the Influenza Vaccine distribution and tracking process.
- Project Manager for pre-deployment medical screening of over 900 military personnel. Scheduled, tracked, and was successful in processing 100% of required personnel. Supervised a team of personnel that assisted with tracking and maintaining medical records.
- Project Manager for pre-deployment medical training for over 100 military personnel. Coordinated a location, setup the classroom, tracked, and qualified 98% of military members present at the class in first aid. Following the class, a report was created and used in the executive meeting.
- Independently maintained online medical data for over 100 military personnel. Reports were created and used in weekly executive meetings. Company medical readiness was kept above 80%.

Recognition & Awards:

Colorado State University:

Member of Omicron Delta Epsilon, the International Honor Society in Economics

U.S. Army:

Honorable Discharge, Two – Army Achievement Medals, Afghanistan Campaign Medal with Two Campaign Stars, Two – Overseas Service Ribbons, and NATO Medal