

ERIC SCHWAGER

1016 Askew Ave, Kansas City, Missouri, 64127, US • (816) 492-9859 • schwagereric420@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Detail-oriented Production Worker with a track record of successfully managing physically demanding tasks and changing work environments.

To avoid delays, effective at keeping areas clean and neat.

Dedicated to learning, growing, and succeeding in [Industry].

At all times, I'm focused on being productive and safe.

Skills

- Team building
- Machinery operation
- Problem resolution
- Process improvement
- Communications
- Assembly protocols

Education

GED - 1982

San Jose, CA

General Automotive service - 1983

Sequoia Institute/via Job corps program - Fremont, CA

Work History

Machine operator Assistant - September, 2019 to June, 2022

Pratt Industries Converting - Kansas City, MO

- Updated the [Type] machine's operating procedures and adjusted its use to increase productivity and longevity.
- Participated in all company-sponsored training sessions in order to improve [Skill] and gain the knowledge required to operate [Type] machine.
- Put together [Type] products in response to changing daily work orders and individual customer requirements.

Order Picker Operator - April, 2017 to April, 2019

Guitar Center - Independence, MO

- Operated warehouse equipment with caution and according to manufacturer instructions to reduce the risk of accidents and malfunctions.
- Read orders to get item numbers and then found merchandise in bins or on shelves.
- Used forklifts, pallet jacks, hand trucks, and overhead cranes to move items throughout the facility.
- Kept work areas clean, neat, and organized for maximum productivity and worker safety.

Warehouse Worker Driver - April, 2015 to March, 2017

Salvation Army ARC (Adult Recovery Center) - Kansas City, MO

- Alternated goods in inventory using the first-in/first-out method to keep shelves organized and properly stocked.
- Improved packing procedures by keeping detailed records of the daily stock packing of over [Number] pounds of [Type] and identifying areas for improvement.
- Was aware of [Type] safety concerns and contacted [Job title] with my concerns and for a prompt resolution.
- Separated all of the debris and packaging from the boxes for recycling or disposal.