

Erick Najera

(970) 787-1258 | erick11811@outlook.com | Fort Collins, CO

Objective

Motivated and hardworking welding student seeking an entry-level welding position to gain hands-on experience and grow within a company. Dedicated to building a strong future through skilled trade work, contributing to a team, and continuously improving my abilities.

Education

Front Range Community College — Welding Program

Expected Completion: May 2026

High School Diploma

Expected Graduation: 2026

Relevant Welding Skills

- Stick welding (SMAW)
- Oxy-acetylene torch cutting
- Grinding and sanding metal surfaces
- Measuring and material layout using tape measure
- Basic welding safety and shop practices

Hands-On Work Experience

- Roofing: Assisted with installation and repair of roofing materials
- Siding: Helped install and remove exterior siding
- Gutters: Installed and maintained gutter systems
- Landscaping: Performed outdoor labor including yard work and cleanup
- Drywall: Assisted with installation and finishing
- Painting: Interior and exterior painting, surface preparation
- Automotive: Basic mechanical work and tool use

Work Skills

- Strong work ethic and reliability
- Ability to perform physical labor and lift heavy materials
- Teamwork and communication
- Willingness to learn and take direction
- Comfortable working in fast-paced environments

Additional Information

- Bilingual: Fluent in Spanish and English
- First language: Spanish

- Actively developing welding skills through hands-on training
- Goal-oriented with a focus on long-term career growth in welding