We have received your form and are currently processing the above case. We will notify you separately about any other case you filed. If we determine you must submit biometrics, we will mail you a biometrics appointment notice with the time and place of your appointment. This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this case is still pending. However, if you are eligible, you may use this notice in conjunction with your facially expired Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document (EAD), as proof of an automatic extension of employment authorization and/or EAD, as applicable.

You are eligible for an automatic extension of your employment authorization and/or EAD if: (1) You have timely filed to renew your current employment authorization and/or EAD; (2) Your EAD renewal request is under a category that is eligible for an automatic extension (see uscis.gov/eadautoextend for a list of eligible categories); (3) The category on your current EAD matches the "Class Requested" listed on this notice (If you are a TPS beneficiary or applicant, your EAD and this notice must contain either the A12 or C19 category, but they do not need to match each other); and (4) Your EAD renewal application is still pending with USCIS when your current EAD expires.

If eligible, you may present this notice to an employer with your expired EAD (and Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, if applicable) for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes. If eligible, your automatic extension is for up to 540 days from the expiration date printed on the front of your EAD. If we deny your EAD renewal application, the automatic extension immediately ends, and you can no longer present this notice to your employer for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is also your Advance Parole document, the automatic extension does not apply to advance parole.

If you applied for an initial (first) employment authorization based on a pending asylum application and USCIS does not adjudicate your application within 30 days, you may be a member of the class action. Rosario v. USCIS, 365 F.Supp.3d 1156 (W.D. Wash. 2018). Please see the uscis.gov/rosario webpage for further information about this class action case, and how to inquire about the status of your employment authorization application.
