Gerardo Sandoval Jr.

ABOUT ME

My name is Gerardo, I am 22 years old, born 10/25/1997, in El Paso, TX. I have been living in Colorado most of my life (19 years). I am very knowledgeable and a very quick learner. All things are possible and achievable through faith and belief. I speak, write, and read clearly and proficiently in both English and Spanish. I have a 4 year old daughter and a recent born daughter. I do not have time to be jumping from job to job and have priorities and bills to pay. I am looking for a Good stable job that pays very well and knows the value of their employees. I am Athletic, Standing for long periods and working long hours will not be a problem.

SKILLS / EXPERIENCE

I have 6+ years of heavy construction experience under various job categories. Lots of heavy equipment operating. I have my apprentice license in plumbing, I have worked as a Welders assistant installing support beams and steel joist floors for about 5-10 months, I have worked as a Commercial Electrician for 1 year. I have TONS of automotive experience, worked fencing, deckbuilding, landscaping, light concrete, I was running a roofing crew and was subcontracted by "American Dream Home Improvement" for 10-12 months, I know roofing from sales to labor. I have painted, cooked, I have about 1-2 years shift manager experience. I took computer classes in high school, along with Construction and Engineering. Have wood working experience, power tool handling to the fullest. I am a very hard worker that is detail oriented and obsessed with working and making good money by working with my hands and power tools. Automobile and mechanical skills, I have experience as a shift manager / salesman at O'Reilly Auto parts, also my father is a master mechanic. He also buys & fixes cars as a hobby. Over the years (10+), I have helped him completely tear apart and reconstruct vehicles. From body work, to swapping motors, to simple maintenance. We hope to one day be able to open up a shop and have our own garage.
