I strive to sharpen my skills in each type of job setting, so that I can become a positive asset to the company as well as a greater part of the whole team. I'm a fast learner, self-motivated, eager to learn new and improved skills for the work at hand, willing to ask questions to my manager when I don't know the answer to a customer's questions. I'm very warm and welcoming, an upbeat type of person who shows up to work as a hard worker and very punctual to meetings and work.
