

Nathan E. Hurst

Cell: 765-430-9630 Email: nehurst79@yahoo.com

Professional Summary

Dedicated, Motivated, Team Oriented, Lead-Operator/Machinist with 15 years of excelling in the manufacturing industry. Experience setting and operating a variety of precision machines to produce parts that meet the customers requirements.

Skills

Leadership
CNC Machine Operation
Efficient Troubleshooting
Quality Control
Blueprint Interpretation
Use of Precision Gauges
Teamwork
5S Organization
Communication

Work History

Machinist

Voestalpine Rotec Inc.

05/2003-02/2013

Responsible for daily operation and Set-up of Sinico cut to length and chamfer machines
Safely operated forklift, overhead cranes and material handling equipment
Accurately read customer blueprints, work instructions and drawings to determine dimensions and tolerances
Selected and adjusted tooling holders to acquire the correct chamfers and angles with accordance to customer prints
Performed daily T.P.M.'s and minor maintenance to maintain and improve machine performance
Organized routed sorts for incoming Temp. agencies
Entered end of shift production data

Quality Inspector

Rea Magnet Wire

01/2002-05/2003

Responsible for inspecting and documenting dimensions of finished product
Safely operated forklift, overhead cranes and material handling equipment
Performed daily T.P.M.'s

Laborer

All-Sets Inc.

12/2000-01/2002

Responsible for transporting modular homes to desired locations
Placed and secured homes onto foundations
Completed Roofing, Siding, and Plumbing
Performed routine maintenance and contract work on older modular homes

Education

Jefferson High School

Diploma

1997