

Jairo Echeverry

253 341 9872

jairo.echeverry92@outlook.com

Five years in U.S. Army, promoted to E-5, Sergeant, infantry. Training in U.S. Army included leadership, leading as many as a team of 3 soldiers, simulations training, maintain Stryker vehicle, experience in problem solving and team work. Approximately 3 years' experience in packaging and shipping medical implants. Currently attending IntelliTec College for an Associate's degree Occupational Studies, HVAC-R, 4/19 to present.

Clean Drug Record

Great Attendance

Good Listener/Learner

Clean Background Check

Team Leadership

Goal Orented Work

Ethic

Experience

Depuy Synthes

Monument, CO

8/16 - 1/19

Senior Packaging Operator - seal and package medical implants, sterilization, inspection, assembly, shipping and inventory

- Met or exceeded quality and packaging requirements, averaging 300 devices per shift
- Promoted to Senior Packager after 1 year of service
- Trained approximately 10 Packaging Operators over 1 year plus

U.S. Army

Various Locations

6/11 - 5/16

Promoted to E-5 Sergeant

- Trained and led a team in basic infantry and as a vehicle commander for a Stryker
- Received awards including: Good Conduct, Achievement Medals
- Received training in leadership
- Clean Service record

Education

IntelliTec College

Colorado Springs, CO

4/19

- Present

Attending for Associate's Degree Occupational Studies - Refrigeration and HVAC

U.S. Army
Four Week Leadership Course

Ft. Carson, CO

2015

Augustin Stahl High School
Graduated 5/10

Bayamon, PR