

James Hanson

Department Lead

Stewartville, MN

Jimbohanson2121@hotmail.com

507-402-5264

Resourceful and multitasking woodworker who is a hands on worker and great with people. Experienced in operating machines while supervising others and implementing company procedures along with problem solving to ensure our weekly goal is met. Insist others are following safety policies, develop a method to reach a weekly goal with a sense of urgency. Experienced in multiple positions

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

Saw operator

Halcon Corporation - Stewartville, MN

July 2015 to Present

Routinely monitored the feed and speed of machines during the machining process.

Obtained blueprints and ordered support materials from suppliers and engineers.

Detected and reported malfunctions and out-of-tolerance machining.

Adhered to all safety protocols and safe work practices to reduce likelihood of injury.

Mathematical skills.

Teamwork and supervision.

Operation of a Schelling FH8 saw.

Cross trained between different positions in Ve\neer department.

Line cook/Wedding catering

Thyme restaurant - Rochester, MN

December 2014 to July 2015

Catered large events.

Worked under short time frames.

Large amounts of multi-tasking and teamwork.

High stress environment while serving the best customer service.

Extreme attention to detail in a timely manner.

Maintenance Worker

Leashes & Leads - Bryron, Minnesota

February 2014 to December 2014

Performed preventive maintenance.

Logged records of facility maintenance performed.

Hands on work with wood/building materials.

Outdoor maintenance on property(grass/snow)

Forklift and minor tractor experience

Skills

FORKLIFT (3 years)

Certifications/Licenses

Forklift Certified

January 2020

Additional Information

Highlights:

Mathematical aptitude

Mechanically aptitude

Equipment maintenance

Great leadership

People-oriented

Able to lift 75-100 pounds

Time efficient and organized