

James T. Hitchens
(719)217-8337
jameshorky1@hotmail.com

Experience:

Aerotek Staffing

Colorado Springs Colorado

Machine Operator

02/2017 to 07/2017

- Set up and operation of a lamination machine to attach a polymer liner two the two sides of a lot of touch screen sensors.
- Developed a method for recovery and reuse of some of the polymer liner used to reduce overall material costs.
- Operated in a cleanroom enviornment.

Front Range Staffing

Colorado Springs Colorado

Medical Compounder

09/2016 to 02/2017

- Produced nutritional supplements by blending prescribed ingredients for each batch of product.
- Documented progress of each batch of product on lot batch record in accordance with good manufacturing practices.
- Ensured that equipment was properly cleaned between lots of product to avoid cross contamination.

Kelly Services

Colorado Springs Colorado

Warehouse Worker

08/2016 to 09/2016

- Reorganized warehouse inventory to facilitate better product flow
- Verified counts during cycle inventories.

Kelly Services

Colorado Springs Colorado

Machine Operator

06/2016 to 08/2016

- Final inspection and packaging of components to be sent to next process
- Followed good manufacturing practices documentation procedures

Skyline Products

Colorado Springs Colorado

Mechanical Assembler

05//2015 to 05//2016

- Mechanical assembly of dynamic messaging signs using hand power tools and hand tools to fabricate said product from prefabricated components and on site produced aluminum frames and cabinets.
- Experience in D.C. assembly of same signs installing D.C. wiring and components.
- Read work orders, followed production drawings and sample assemblies and received verbal instructions.
- Crimped, staked, screwed, bolted, riveted, cemented, press fitted and performed similar operations to join and secure parts in place.

- Routed and connected wires between individual component leads and other components, connectors, terminals and contact points.

Western Forge Corporation

Colorado Springs Colorado

Extruder Operator

03/1994 to 04/2015

- Cleared jams, removed defective and substandard materials and products and readjusted machine components to conform to specifications.
- Recorded and maintained production data, such as meter readings and quantity, type and dimensions of materials produced.
- Moved materials, supplies, components and finished products between storage and work areas, using work aids, such as racks, hoists and hand trucks.
- Examined, measured and weighed materials and products to verify conformance to standards, using measuring devices, such as, dial calipers and scales.
- Reviewed work orders, specifications and instructions to determine materials, ingredients, procedures, components, settings and adjustments for extruding, forming, pressing and compacting machine.

U.S. Army

Washington D.C.

Power Generation Equipment Repair
And Maintenance

Education: Sussex Central High School
General Studies

Georgetown Delaware