

James Nelson

13 Nipmuck Trail.
Jimijames552@yahoo.com
West Greenwich, RI. 02817
(401) 269. 9045

Summary:

Highly skilled CNC Machinist, operating as Foreman, with military background. Proven ability to employ resources to promote efficient work flow. Proficient in running CNC lathes, CNC Swiss Machines, Fanuc operating controls, and vertical milling centers (Matsuura, Nakamura, Yama seiki, Mori seiki, and Methods Slant). Trained in blue print reading, ordering parts, tools and materials. BobCAD-CAM knowledgeable.

Experience:

Plant Supervisor, August 2015-present
Pro Manufactured Products, Inc., Plainfield, CT

- Overseer of day to day floor operations/employees
- Program and set up of CNC and CNC Swiss
- Enforced company rules and regulations as needed

Shop Foreman, September 2007-July 2015
Ridgetop Precision Inc., Coventry, RI

- Setup and operated CNC lathes and vertical milling centers
- CNC programming and program editing when necessary
- Overseeing employees and work quality
- Maintaining and fixing mechanical functions of machinery
- Inspection and packaging of finished products
- Ordered material, parts, and tooling required to produce products
- Organize and delegate jobs to other employees
- Some office responsibilities when necessary such as paperwork and answering phones

CNC machine operator, July 2003-September 2007
Ridgetop Precision Inc., Coventry, RI

- Setup and operations of CNC lathes and vertical milling centers
- Inspection of products being produced

AH-64A Armament/Electrical Systems Technician, January 2001-February 2005
U.S. Army National Guard, North Kingstown, RI

- Maintain and repair AH-64A Apache Helicopter

Education:

AH-64A Armament/Electrical Systems Repair Course, June 2003
U.S. Army Aviation Logistics School, Ft. Eustis, VA

High School Diploma, June 2002
Coventry High School, Coventry, RI

