Hi Kelsey,
Please read below! And I looked at our pay chart and his shift diff. has always been added to his regular pay :) Hope this helps. Let me know what you think.
Thanks
Lisa

On Monday Augustine Murietta will be going to first shift to fill in the empty slot with Lorena. He should stay at the current wage he is currently at regardless of the difference in shift differential. His total hour rate should stay at $10.50 per hour. That means his hourly rate would be $10.50 per hour with no shift differential added.

Thank you for your help with this.

John
