Work Experience

---

Assembly Worker/ Shipping Assistant

Decibullz Custom Audio - Fort Collins, CO

April 2019 to Present

As an assembly worker for Decibullz, I mostly work in the warehouse. This job includes product checking for any faulty objects, packaging the objects in a neat and clean fashion, and putting the finished products in their shipment boxes. Although it's not on the job description, I also help with shipping, and picking for shipping.

Housekeeper

Marriott Residence Inn - Fort Collins, CO

July 2018 to April 2019

As a housekeeper for Residence Inn, I have an eye for detail and I keep a tidy workspace. I clean rooms for our residents, and make sure their needs are met during their stay. Customer service is very important as a maid; having conversations and asking questions are a daily essential.

Mod Team Associate

Walmart - Fort Collins, CO

October 2017 to July 2018

After being a stocker at Wal-mart for several months, I was promoted to a mod team associate. Being on the mod team means setting modulares all around the store, clearing off and cleaning shelves before re-labeling and stocking the shelves, bringing out new freight and handling products no longer on mod, and working efficiently and cooperatively in a team to get the job done fast as well as correct.

Night Stocker

Walmart - Fort Collins, CO

June 2017 to June 2018

The responsibilities of a night stocker include stocking and zoning shelves in order to keep up productivity, working pallet jacks and moving pallets, lifting heavy boxes, and assisting customers with questions they may have and greeting them with a friendly welcome.

Sandwich Artist/Cashier

Subway - Fort Collins, CO

June 2016 to June 2017

Working at Subway means preparing and making food to satisfy customer wishes, frequently greeting and helping customers and giving them a good experience, running a cash register and handling/ counting money at the end of a shift, cutting and packaging vegetables and meat for use the next day, and being a good team player to help everyone finish their daily duties. I was a closer so I was also in charge of final cleaning duties as well as counting and closing the register on my own at the end of the night.
