

LYNNA SAUERHAGEN

2601 Mason Wy
719-640-3083
lsauerhagen@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To dedicate myself fully to all company policies to ensure highest quality while maintaining a professional, positive attitude.

EDUCATION

High school diploma | Mitchell High

Graduated 1981

EXPERIENCE

Machine operator | Entegris

MARCH 2017 – PRESENT

Assembly and inspection of plastic parts, made mostly for semiconductor transport in a class 10 clean room. Training new employees. Working closely with engineers to develop process techniques.

Machine operator | Atmel/Microchip

AUG 2003 – NOV 2016

Machine operation in a class 5 clean room. Experienced in the thin films dept including metals, tungsten, SA, HDP, RTA which were all Applied Materials machinery as well as other types of machines. Quality Assurance for SRDs. Training new employees as well as cross training.

Machine operator | NTI/DDI

JUNE 1996 – JAN 2000

Circuit board manufacturing including working in a class 10 clean room running coat and expose machines. Experienced in additional machines; deburr, sander, pumice scrub machines, electroless copper plating line. Training new employees, and working with engineers to refine ISO documentation and develop new processes.

SKILLS

- Detail oriented
- Quick decision making
- Consistent quality
- Team oriented
- Multitasking
- Organization

ACTIVITIES

I enjoy a variety of activities including spending time with family, reading, music, hiking, movies and tv, computer games, arts and crafts and puzzles.

REFERENCES

- John Bennett 719-287-6265
- Drew Mulligan 719-822-5577