Morning Prep Cook, Evening back-up Cook

Olive Garden - Terre Haute, IN

September 2014 to September 2015

I would work morning prep for 4 hours, then go to school for 6 hours, then back for dinner back up till close. Consisting of typical back-of-house food prep and backing up the cooks line keeping them stocked. I worked this schedule from Oct to December 2014 while attending certification classes for cnc machining, a 16 week course that our class finished in 11. Earning the standard 5 certifications + 2 more for free, if we passed the test on the first try. As a class, we wanted to get done before christmas so we didn't have to come back afterwards. There were only 9 in our class but everyone completed and passed all 7 certifications, 5 weeks early! I continued to work here until landing my position at J & N Metals exactly one year from starting at the restaurant.

Additional Information

I have approximately 8 years experience working as a Tire & Lube tech at various Auto dealerships, Tire Barn and Pep Boys. I have also attended some auto tech class, first at Lincoln Tech (Indianapolis) in 1999 and Ivy Tech Community College(Terre Haute) 2008. Finally, I have been learning about automotive maintenance and technology and maintained and repaired all my own vehicles, ever since my father first taught me how to do an oil change at the age of 6.
