WORK EXPERIENCE

Nanny/Babysitter

N/A - Rochester, MN

Responsibilities

My everyday responsibilities were making food, doing homework, reading books, playing with the kids outside. I also had to clean up the house and get them ready for bed.

Accomplishments

I showed them how to ride bike, helped the kids with math, english, and reading, and also showed them fun ways to help parents clean house.

Skills Used

Cooking, organization, discipline, patience, and being active.

Manager

Mcdonalds - Rochester, MN - September 2012 to March 2015

Responsibilities

I was a shift leader so I would work early in the morning do a preshift, get lunch stock done, position people, and get breaks done. Then at 10:30 I would run the store all through lunch until I got off.

Accomplishments

I learned a lot about myself through the years that I was there. I learned communication skills and how to make conversation. I also learned how to multitask things would get really busy and sometimes hectic and I would have to do multiple things on my own. Another thing I learned was routine, routine was always hard for me but as time went by routine became very easy.
