Form W-4 (2013)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2013 expires February 17, 2014. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2013. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

INJURY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Injured Worker's Responsibilities

As your employer, we are concerned about your full recovery. Reasonable and necessary medical care will be paid for any compensable work injury. Medically authorized time away from work will be reimbursed in accordance with the State of Minnesota workers' compensation laws. Wherever possible light duty restrictions imposed as a result of your injury will be accommodated.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE INJURED WORKER:

Minnesota Rule Sec. 5221.0430, Subp. 1 requires that you choose one primary health care provider. Subpart 2 places limitations on your right to change primary health care providers. Discuss with your employer any change in health care provider.

Attend all scheduled appointments. While on physical limitations, visits should be a minimum of once every two weeks. Failure to have current medical support for disability may result in termination of benefits. Schedule your next appointment immediately after your doctor visit, before you leave the clinic if possible.

Obtain a Report of Workability from your physician at every appointment, a minimum of once every two weeks. M.R. 5221.0420 requires that your physician cooperate with return to work planning and that you be released to return to work at the earliest appropriate time.

Immediately following your appointment, provide a copy of the report to the designated employer representative. You should deliver this in person so that changes in work restrictions may be addressed and any questions answered.

Follow all physical restrictions at home and at work.

Report to work and perform physically suitable tasks as assigned. These may or may not be in your regular department. The work may or may not be on your usual shift.

Maintain regular, weekly, communication with your employer if you are unable to return to work. Contact your employer a minimum of after every visit with your primary health care provider. Keep the claims representative advised of your status.

Notify your employer immediately of any new injuries or conditions that impact your physical condition.

If it is necessary to miss scheduled work due to a work injury, you must be seen by your primary health care provider the same day in order to receive compensation for the time away from work. The physician must complete a Report of Workability.

I have read my responsibilities and agree to abide by these guidelines.

Signed: MBowen

Important/Importante

LOST OR STOLEN PAYCHECKS

If a paycheck is lost (missing, misplaced, destroyed, lost in the mail, etc.), you must notify your staffing recruiter that the check cannot be found. If it can be verified that the check has not been cashed, ESSG will stop payment on the check and re-issue the check to you, deducting a fee of between $25-$35.

If your paycheck was stolen, you must first file a police report before we can re-issue the check. Once you have done so, you must provide a copy of the police report to your staffing recruiter that the check was stolen. If the check has not been cashed and if the loss of the check was not your fault, ESSG will issue a new check and no fee will be deducted.

CHEQUES DE PAGO PERDIDOS O ROBADOS

Si un cheque de pago se pierde (que falta, fuera de lugar, destruido, perdido en el correo, etc), usted debe notificar a su reclutador de personal que el cheque no se puede encontrar. Si se puede verificar que el cheque no ha sido cobrado, ESSG se detendrá el cheque de pago y reemitir el cheque a usted, descontando un cargo de entre $ 25 - $ 35.

Si su cheque de pago fue robado, primero debe denunciar el robo a la policía antes de que podamos volver a emitir el cheque. Una vez hecho esto, usted debe proporcionar una copia de la denuncia a su reclutador de personal que el cheque fue robado. Si el cheque no ha sido cobrado y si la pérdida del cheque no fue su culpa, ESSG emitirá un nuevo cheque y no hay cuota se deducirá.

New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Form Approved
OMB No. 1210-0149
(expires 11-30-2013)

PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace and employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.¹

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution—as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage—is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?

For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description or contact Employer Solutions Staffing Group LLC - 952-767-9519.

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

CONFIDENTIALITY & NONSOLICITATION AGREEMENT

This agreement made this 29th day of December, 2014 ("the Agreement"), is between Corporate Management Group Inc. ("CMG"), Employer Solutions Staffing Group LLC ("ESSG") Colorado Lighting Inc. ("the Company") and MARK Bowen ("Employee") (together "the Parties").

The Company is engaged in the business of Lighting and Electrical Distribution. The Company has employed Employee to perform services for it and Employee has accepted said employment.

In consideration of the foregoing and Employee's employment by the Company as good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Confidentiality

- a. Definition of "Confidential Information." "Confidential Information" means all confidential business or financial information of the Company, including but not limited to any trade secrets, manufacturing plans, new product information, customer lists, or other information that is secret and of value.
- b. Employee's Use of Confidential Information. The Company owns certain trade secrets and confidential information in connection with its business, which are valuable assets of the Company. During the duration, and after the termination of this Agreement, Employee shall not, without the Company's prior written consent, directly or indirectly, use, disclose, or otherwise communicate any Confidential Information to any person or entity, except in performance of Employee's legitimate duties for the Company.
- c. Acknowledgment of Confidential Information. Employee acknowledges that Employee will have access to Confidential Information, made accessible to Employee only in strict confidence by the Company. Employee acknowledges that unauthorized disclosure will damage the Company's business and that Confidential Information could immediately be used by a competitor of the Company. The use and value of this Confidential Information depends on its continuing secrecy and the Company has taken appropriate steps to maintain this secrecy. Employee acknowledges that the restrictions contained in this section are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the Company's business.
- d. Definition of Company Property. Company Property is defined as, but not limited to, all documents or other records containing or reflecting Confidential Information prepared by or provided to Employee and all copies, in any medium, of such materials. Employee shall not copy or use any Company Property for any purpose not relating directly to Employee's work on the Company's behalf, or use, disclose, or sell any Company Property, except with the Company's prior written consent. Upon the termination of the employment relationship or upon the Company's request, Employee shall immediately deliver to the Company all Company Property. Employee may comply with any subpoena or court order, if Employee submits a copy of the subpoena or court order to the Company's President within three (3) working days of receipt.

- e. Entire Agreement. This agreement contains all of the terms agreed upon by the parties and supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements, and communications between the parties on this subject, whether oral or written.
- f. Survival. Employee's obligations under this agreement shall survive the termination of Employee's employment and shall be enforceable regardless of which party terminates the employment relationship and regardless of whether such termination is later claimed or found to be wrongful.
- g. Governing Law and Forum. All disputes or issues arising from this agreement or the Company's relationship with Employee shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Colorado. Any action arising from or relating in any way to this agreement or Employee's employment with the Company shall be tried only in the state or federal courts situated in Colorado. The parties consent to jurisdiction and venue in those courts to the greatest extent possible under law.
- h. Severability. In the event any of the restrictions contained in this agreement are held to be unenforceable, the court so holding shall effect any change to the extent absolutely necessary to render the restrictions enforceable, while still maintaining the parties' expressed desire that the Company be protected to the greatest extent possible under the applicable law. Each of the terms and provisions of this agreement is severable in whole or in part, and any term or provision found to be invalid or illegal and unenforceable by the court shall be excised by the court, and the remaining terms and provisions shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect.
- i. Modification and Waiver. The parties agree that this agreement cannot be modified or waived without a written agreement signed by both parties. The Company's waiver of the breach of any provision of this agreement by Employee shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach.
- j. Heirs and Assigns. This agreement shall be binding upon Employee's heirs, executors, administrators, or other legal representatives; shall inure to the benefit of the Company, its successors or assigns; and shall be freely assignable by the Company, but not by Employee.
- k. Headings. Numbers and titles to the sections of this agreement are for information purposes only and, where inconsistent with the text, are to be disregarded.
- l. Acknowledgment of Employee Opportunity to Seek Counsel. Employee has been afforded the opportunity to read, reflect upon, and consider the terms of the agreement; has been afforded the opportunity to discuss this agreement with an attorney or other adviser; and has read this entire agreement, fully understands its terms, and has voluntarily executed this agreement.
- m. AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT ALTER THE AT-WILL NATURE OF THEIR EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP.
