I have a lot of experience in factory/warehouse work from the mid 80s up until now. I have operated foot press plastic injection mold machines as well as a machine that melts extension cords together also aerosol n liquid co conveyer belt work to strapping machine to nail machine that screws in for pictures. I've worked at geotezs candy operated the machine that makes cowtail candys. I have no problem learning new things working in a team or alone. I am dependable, reliable and will stay over if need be. As for assembly, I've done everything from assembling Easter baskets to carding earrings and doing at home stores from a empty warehouse putting up shelving putting furniture together and whatever product needs to be assembled until its open for business. I have also worked in Maryland for 4yrs assembling taillights and headlights.alsohave food service exp.

Willing to relocate: Anywhere
