Notice of Applicant Account Reactivation

Applicant Name: Morgan E Turner
Reason the applicant gave for separation: Quit

This applicant worked for you and has reactivated their benefit account.

- You do not need to respond to this notice if the applicant was laid off due to lack of work and there is no other reason they might not be eligible for benefits.
- If you believe the applicant should not be eligible for benefits or that your account should not be charged, you should "Raise an Issue". We will determine the applicant's eligibility and the effect on your account.

Raise an Issue within ten days of the date on this notice if you believe the applicant is not eligible for benefits or that your account should not be charged.

The following are some common examples of issues to raise.

The applicant:

- Quit or was terminated for a reason other than lack of work
- Is still working, full or part-time
- Is not able to work, available for work, or authorized to work
- Refused a job offer
- Received or applied for separation pay, pension, disability, or workers' compensation

For more examples of issues to raise go to www.umn.org, select "Employers and Agents" and then "Raise an Issue or Appeal".

How to Raise an Issue

Online - Log in to your account at www.umn.org, select "Determinations and Issue Summary" and follow the instructions. Be prepared to complete a questionnaire giving details about the issue.

Fax or mail the front page of this notice and a statement describing the issue you are raising. If we need more information, we will mail you a questionnaire specific to the issue.
