

Friday morning at 7:48AM as im driving to work, A truck in front of me is slowing down to turn in to Ellisons. I merge right to go around him & see a white Flash in my mirrors as a car is already going around me! At a high rate of speed! He turns on his blinker to turn into Suzzon, and cuts in front of another car, who was already turning into Suzzon, coming from the south. This car slammed on his breaks to avoid hitting him. This driver weaves between a couple people walking in the parking lot & finds his place to park. He punches in 8-9 minutes early. I walked up to him & said "Thats a nice piece of driving out there dude!" his reply was "ya like that?" I said "No, your gonna kill somebody." He pushed me with both hands at my shoulders & we both walked away.
There were only a few people at the clock area, I dont know who saw it, I didnt see anyone I knew.
I followed him to his Dept. & asked what his name was, he said, BREON.

He drives a
