Experiencia laboral

Production Worker

Claremont Foods | Westminster, CO

septiembre 2025 - febrero 2026

- Kitting. In the kitting area, the sealed product was normally packaged in boxes only to send them directly to the stores, the indicated amount of product was packaged and then in other larger boxes to accommodate them in pallets and send them to the indicated destination.
- Production. In the production area we made and cooked the bars from the beginning, we carried out a whole process from scratch, with the correct equipment we spread the dough and it was cut through a machine and then followed the process to the packaging point.
- Operator. As an operator my duty was to help my leader with the scans and tasks apart from having to help my colleagues in teaching them to work better on the line, I also helped to cover breaks and lunch

Singles Packer

McLane Company | Longmont, CO

octubre 2024 - agosto 2025

- Single Sell perishables (cooler). I worked packing edible products and delicate products in small boxes during the day, we had a small metal car to help place the boxes and orders.
- Single sell perishables (Freezer). My position was to arrange the trash cans for cardboard boxes in the center and drag large plastic boxes to the center before starting to pack the product, after that we had a small 10-centimeter metal cart to place large boxes and make the packaging in the freezer and in the ice cream room.
- Candy Área. In the candy area I made packaging of desserts and sweets keeping two plastic boxes in a band that went around in a circle thus placing product while walking.
