Professional Summary

A quick description about me is I'm a team player with a strong work ethic from experiences from the high school basketball varsity team. I took AP Stats in high school and knowledge and understanding I took from that class is critical thinking, basic math and analytics. Went to Front Range Community College to get my associates of studio arts. Learn to be creativity and utilize tools. I believe to be a good people person because I'm an active listener, I can problem solve and reliable and trustworthy.
