

Victor Ombaba

machine operator

Brooklyn Center, MN 55430

victor.momanyi2014@icloud.com

612-987-5033

Work Experience

machine operator

Sandvik

December 2017 to July 2018

at Sandvik in setting up a Newbury molding machine set up and trouble shooting and as a technician in building of product and inspection of own work

- ❖ Reading and understanding layouts, job packet, and blueprints for machined components.
- ❖ Reviewing prints and programs and writing simple programs manually without Computer Aided Design(CAD)
- ❖ Setting up work to be performed in efficient manner, experienced in reading micrometers and calipers. And machine operation such as press drill, Bridgeport for vertical milling, Hand tapping, pedestal grinding, vertical band saw drilling and sawing, reaming and countersinking.
- ❖ Working closely with production, production engineers and factory team and design engineers and production employee to ensure all quality and production requirements are met.
- ❖ Perform necessary side operations during machine cycle time as required (i. e., deburring)
- ❖ Adjusting tools and replace as needed.
- ❖ Accountability to achieve the company's goals of meeting customer expectations, on-time delivery, quality and cost.
- ❖ Initiating creativity and innovative ideas and shows willingness to implement them.

Medical assembler

Minneapolis, MN

January 2015 to November 2017

55430

Sandvik is an engineering group in tooling, materials technology, mining and construction

Education

High School Diploma

St Louis Park High School

June 2012

College and University, Hennepin Technical College

Skills

CNC, Microsoft word (5 years), Oracle 10G (Less than 1 year), Manufacturing, Machine Operator, Warehouse, Packaging, Powerpoint, Quality Control, Maintenance, Problem Solving