EMPLOYEE INSTRUCTIONS:

Why you received this Further Action Notice

Your employer participates in E-Verify, a program managed by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA). E-Verify compares the information you provided on Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, with records available to DHS to verify that you are authorized to work in the United States.

You received this Further Action Notice from your employer because E-Verify provided a result of SSA Tentative Nonconfirmation (SSA TNC). An SSA TNC means that the information entered into E-Verify by your employer does not match SSA records. An SSA TNC does not necessarily mean that you gave incorrect information to your employer or that you are not authorized to work in the United States. Visit the For Employees pages at www.dhs.gov/E-Verify to learn the reasons you may have received an SSA TNC.

What you should do:

1. Check that the information on Page 1 of this Further Action Notice is correct. If it is not correct, provide the correct information to your employer. Your employer should close this E-Verify case and use the corrected information to create a new case.
2. Decide if you will contest (take action to resolve) the SSA TNC and inform your employer of your decision.
IMPORTANT: If you decide not to contest the SSA TNC, your case will become a Final Nonconfirmation, which means that your employer may terminate your employment.
3. Select your decision to contest or not contest and sign and date this Further Action Notice below. If you decide to take action to contest the SSA TNC, to begin to resolve the SSA TNC, you must visit an SSA field office within 8 Federal Government working days from the date your employer refers your case in E-Verify.
IMPORTANT: Review Page 3 of this notice for important information about employer responsibilities and your rights.

What you must do to take action to resolve the SSA TNC:

1. Visit an SSA field office within 8 Federal Government working days from the date your employer refers your case to SSA to begin to resolve your case. Your employer must give you a Referral Date Confirmation, which will tell you the date by which you must visit SSA.
To locate an SSA field office, visit www.socialsecurity.gov/locator or call SSA at 800-772-1213 (TTY: 800-325-0778). If you live in an area where there is a Social Security Card Center, you are required to visit the Card Center.
2. Bring this Further Action Notice when you visit the SSA field office. Tell SSA that you are there because of an E-Verify issue.
3. Bring the following original documents to the SSA field office, if you have them. SSA may require:
  - Proof of your age; for example, a birth certificate or passport
  - Proof of your identity; for example, a driver's license or passport
  - Proof of a legal name change; for example, a marriage certificate, if your current name is not displayed on your current Social Security number card.
  - Proof of U.S. citizenship or your work-authorized status:
    - If you are a U.S. citizen, for example, a Naturalization Certificate, U.S. public birth certificate, or U.S. passport, or

- If you are not a U.S. citizen, for example, a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551 or "green card"), Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766), or Arrival-Departure Record (Form I-94) showing work-authorized status.

To check the status of your case visit myE-Verify at <https://selfcheck.uscis.gov/SelfCheckUI/CaseTracker>.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

This page provides important information about employer responsibilities and your rights.

- Employers must promptly notify you, in private, of a Tentative Nonconfirmation (TNC).
- Employers must allow you to contest a TNC and may not take adverse action against you because of the TNC while you are contesting the TNC and your E-Verify case is pending.
- You have 8 Federal Government working days to visit an SSA field office or contact DHS to contest the TNC from the date the employer refers the case in E-Verify.
- Employers must not discriminate against you because of your citizenship, immigration status or national origin.
- Employers cannot use E-Verify selectively or to pre-screen job applicants. E-Verify must be used for all new employees regardless of citizenship, immigration status or national origin.
- Employers cannot use E-Verify to verify existing employees, unless the employer is currently a federal contractor with the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) E-Verify Clause in its federal contract.
- Employers are required to clearly display the 'Notice of E-Verify Participation' and the 'Right to Work' posters in all languages supplied by DHS.
- Employers may terminate employees because of a TNC only after receiving a Final Nonconfirmation, or after an employee has decided not to contest a TNC.
- Employers may not use E-Verify to reverify existing employees whose employment authorization has expired. Instead, employers must complete Section 3 of Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, or complete a new Form I-9.
