Experience

Recycler sorter, June 7 2013

What I did in my work place is they brought in loads of material and I was the one that sorted then out to there specific material that they carried, for instance cans, copper wiring, metals, and even take apart big things to get the metal inside. Computer background, customer service.

Big 5 sporting goods/ Office max sales associate. From 2017 till 2018

For both of these jobs I was a floor associate and cashier where I talked to the customer and asked them what they are looking for that way I can best find what they are looking for for office materials to camping and fishing.

Cabinet delivery driver/ driver assistant September 2018 - August 2019

What I did is depending on the day I would drive or help a driver deliver Cabinet to construction site from house to business being built and I would deliver the cabinetry there. Then after we would have multiple loads a day. We would go from Colorado to California as the furthest we've gone to deliver. Sometimes we would go to Tucson AZ.

Amazon delivery driver from August 2019 till September of 2021

What I would do is I would drive the Amazon blue prime vans to houses apartments or businesses delivering packages. Since catered I've been with 2 companies with my second company is where I got my DOT license to drive the big box vans for Amazon. Which with those I would have to drive long distance from chandler AZ to Casa Grande AZ or maricopa Az.

Amazon flex driver from Decmber 2021 till August 2022. Pretty much like Amazon but you use your own car and you can pick up routes from 3hrs to 5hrs depends on what you pick up

Wild Pastures delivery driver/ warehouse worker from August 2022 till November 2023

I deliver frozen meat to the residents home or at there work depending where they instruct me to deliver it to.

Krispy Kreme route sales associate/ lead Driver Manager November 2023 till September 1st 2024

As a Lead Driver Manager what I would deliver I would use a 20ft Krispy Kreme truck to deliver doughnuts to the route I have to follow early in the morning I would use my customer service knowledge to talk to receiving personnel to see how each of my driver would be doing and if they are doing a great job and make sure everything is set up great for the display sometimes as the Lead I would open up new displays at new stores and make sure everything was in great condition that way it would sell and we continue to deliver there.

September 26 Delivery Driver/Warehouse
Deliver truck parts to major companies all over Denver Area as far north to Fort Collins to down south to Littleton. Then sometimes at the warehouse looking at parts and putting away getting to know the parts.
